These appointments have been made after careful deliberation and extensive correspondence.

But friends may change the times and places, provided I am duly notified and there is no interference with the general schedule.

The party will need the usual meals, and food for three mules.

Where there are committees on the Orphan Asylum, they will be relied on to make all needed arrangements.

In the absence of committees, other friends are requested to do so. A church, or a large hall, should always be preferred for the entertainments, that the people may be comfortably seated, and perfect order preserved.

J. H. MILLS, Supt.

—The sweetest, the most clinging affection is often shaken by the slightest breath of unkindness, as the delicate rings and tendrils of the vine are agitated by the faintest air that blows in summer.

An unkind word from one beloved, often draws blood from many a heart which would defy the battle-axe of hatred or the keenest edge of vindictive satire.

Nay, the shade, the gloom of the face familiar and dear, awakens grief and pain. These are the little thorns which, though men of a rougher form may make their way through them without feeling much, extremely incommode persons of a more refined turn in their journey through life, and make their traveling irksome and unpleasant.

REPORTS BY THE TEACHERS.

The orphans are divided into Four Graded Forms, each in charge of a teacher, whose report is printed every fourth week. The highest number is 10; the lowest is 1. When the average is below 5, the orphan is liable to be discharged as not "promising," and therefore excluded by the regulations. This paper contains the report made by the teacher of the
