RICH WITHOUT MONEY.

Many a man is rich without oney. Thousands of men with money. nothing in their pockets, and thousands without even a pocket, are rich. A man born with a good sound constitution, a good stomach, a good heart, and good limbs, and a pretty good headpiece, is rich. Good bones are better than gold; tough muscles than silver; and nerves that flash fire and carry energy to every function are better than houses and land. It is better than a landed estate to have the right kind of a father and mother. Good breeds and bad breeds exist among men as really as among heards and horses. Education may do much to check evil tendencies or to develop good ones; but it is a great thing to inherit the right proportion of fac-ulties to start with. The man is rich who has a good disposition who is naturally kind, patient, cheerful, hopeful, and who has a flavor of wit and fun in his composition.

After imitating the puffing noise of the steam, he stopped and called out "New York," and in a moment after "Patter-son," and then "Philadelphia." His knowledge of towns was now exhausted, and the next place he cried, "Heaven." His little sister comes upon their friends, as it ofsaid eagerly: "Top! I des I'll dit out here.'

and gossip mongers. Keep straight on in your course, and let their back-biting die the death of neg-What is the use of lying lect. awake at nights, brooding over the remark of some false friend, that runs through your brain like lightning! What is the use of getting into a worry and fret over gossip that has been set affoat to your disadvantage, by some meddlesome busybody who has more time than character ? The things cannot possibly injure you unless, indeed, you take notice of them, and in combating them give them standing and character. If what is said about you is true, set yourself right; if it is false, let it go for what it will fetch. If a bee sting you, would you go to the hive to destroy it ! Would not a thousand come upon you? It is wisdom to say little respecting the injuries you have received. We are generally losers in the end, if we stop to refute all the back-biting and gossiping we may hear by the way. They are annoying, it is true, but not dangerons, so long as we do not stop to expostulate and scold. Our characters are formed and sustained by ourselves, by our own actions and purposes, and not by others. Let us always bear in mind that "calumniators may usually be trusted to time and the s'ow but steady justice of public opinion.

A DOG RETURNING GOOD FOR EVIL.

That St. John's College shall be made an Asylum for the protection, training and edu-cation of indigent orphan children. That this Grand Lodge will appropriate annually for the support of the institu-tion; but will not assume any additional pe-ceniary responsibility. That orphan children in the said Asylum shall be fed and clothed, and shall receive such preparatory training and education as will prepare them for useful occupations and for the usual business transactions of life. That the Superintendeut of the said Orphan Asylum shall report at each Annual Commu-nication an account of his official acts, receipts, disbursements, number of pupils, etc., to-gether with such suggestions as he may see fit to offe. That the Master of each Subordinate Lodge and committee to report in writing each month, and that said reports and the funds received be forwarded monthly to the Super-intendent of the Asylum, and traquire said committee to report in writing each month, and that said reports and the funds received be forwarded monthly to the Super-intendent of the Asylum, be a regular or-der of business in each Subordinate Lodge at each Communication. Rowing out into the middle of the river, he fastened a stone round the dog's head and threw him into the water. The animal sank at once; but during his struggles the rope slipped off the stone, and he again rose to the surface and tried to get back into the boat. His master, however, continued to push him back, but as the dog persevered, he lost his patience, and striking at him with his oar, lost his footing and fell into the water himself. He was unable to swim, but the dog seizing him by his coat, succeeded in bringing him to land, after having been repeatedly washed away by the current The dog's life was spared, we are happy to say .- Warrenton Gazette.

SNOW IN THE BALL-ROOM.

The following anecdote is told by Professor Dove, of Berlin, in illustration of the production of snow by change of temperature. On an extremely cold but starlight night, a large company had assembled in a ball-room in Sweden, which in the course of the evening became so warm that some of the ladies fainted An officer tried to open a window, but found it was frozen to the sill. He then broke a pane of glass, and the rush of cold air from A boy of five years was "play- without produced a fall of snow in the room. Its atmosphere was coming suddenly condensed and frozen, fell in the form of snow upon the astonished dancers.

THE POOREST GIRLS.

The poorest girls in the world are those who have never been ten does, their case is hopeless. The most forlorn and miserable 46-class. It belongs to parents to protect their daughters from this deplorable condition. They do them a great wrong if they neg-lect it. Every daughter should be taught to earn her own living. The rich as well as the poor require this training. The wheel of fortune rolls swiftly round; the rich are very likely to become poor and the poor rich. Skill to labor is no disadvantage to the rich and is indispensable to the poor. Well-to-do parents must educate their children to work. No reform is more imperative than this.

IMPERIAL SOAP IS THE BEST!

Crampton's Imperial Soap is the best. Crampton's Imperial Soap is the best.

The Huntingdon Pennsylvania Monitor, of April 5th, 1877, pronounces this Scap the best in the market, as follows : "Reader, we dou't want you to suppose that this is an advertisement, and pass it over unheeded. Read it. We want to direct your attention to the advertisement of 'Crampton's Imperial Scap." Having used it in our of-fice for the past year, we can recommend it as the best quality of scap in use. It is a rare thing to get a Scap that will thoroughly cleanse priating ink from the hands, as also from linen; but Crampton's laundry scap will do it and we know whereof we speak. It is especially adapted for printers, painters, en-gineers and machinists, as it will remove grease of all descriptions from the hands as well as clothes, with little labor. For general household purposes it cannot be excelled. Manufactured only by CBAMPTON RECOTHERDS
