SPECIAL MENTION.

We begin the new year with a new corps of teachers. See list elsewhere.

In the present Legislature there are twenty-two alumni of the State University.

Now that the new year is at hand, we expect to see our warehouses filled with tobacco.

The North Carolina Baptist almanac for 1883, is on our table. It is handsomely gotten up, containing seventy-two pages, and is "dirt" cheap at the subscription price, 10 cents.

A child that is dependant upon anyone for his support has no right to disregard the wishes of that individual. Boys, keep this in mind, and let your parents' wishes be your law.

We omitted to thank Bro. L. D. Bacon, W. M. of Mt. Pisgah Lodge, for a club of twelve subscribers. Accept our lowest bow, Bro. B., and get others to do likewise.

The FRIEND begins the new year with a subscription list of 2400. Business men should make a note of this as the FRIEND is among the best advertising mediums in the State.

The spring session of the Oxford Female Seminar begins on the 17th. This is one of the best schools for young ladies in the State. See advertisement.

Two of the most valuable boxes ever received at the Orphan Asylum are acknowledged in the list of contributions this week. One by Bro. Dennis Simmons, of Williamston, the other by Bro. E. D. Scull, of Hertford county.

The Spring term of the Oxford Normal School will begin the second Monday in January. This school is so well known to North Carolinians that a simple announcement is all that is required. For particulars address the Principals.

Judge Ruffin, of the Supreme Court, and five of the Superior Court Judges, are our alumni. Phillips, M. Koy, Gilmer, Hipp and Avery. Senators Hanson and Vance are both graduates of the University.—Univ. Monthly.

The Sunday School Institute which was advertised to have been held with Mountain Creek Baptist Church last Saturday and Sunday, did not meet in consequence of the bad weather.

Among the presents sent to the Orphans last week, was "Mary's Little Lamb," which the young lady has grown weary of, and donated to Mr. Mills as personal property. The Superintendent accepts the "Little Lamb" with a grateful bow, and a happy smile.

The FRIEND bows gratefully to its many friends and patrons of 1882, and thanks them profoundly for the help and comfort of their patience, (especially their dollars) which have lightened our cares for these twelve months. Many by whom this paragraph is read have now our warmest invitation to open their pocket-books, take out a dollar, adjust it in an envelope, and forward it to the ORPHANS' FRIEND, Oxford, N. C., at once, that we may not have to efface your name from our books. To part with a subscriber, is like parting with an old friend, who has stood by us in times

COMMITTEES OF THE LODGES ON THE ORPHAN ASYLUM.

By reference to the proceedings of the Grand Lodge it will be found to be the duty of each subordinate lodge to appoint a standing committee to raise and report funds for the Asylum monthly. It is further made the duty of every Secretary of a Lodge to send the names of such committees to the ORPHANS' FRIEND for publication, in order that persons wishing to employ orphans may know the steps to be taken.

We give the committees below, so far as the Secretaries have reported: Mt. Vernon Lodge, No. 359—Tess. M. Lane, F. L. McClees, W. W. Richardson.

St. John's Lodge, No. 3—L. W. Hancock, chairman.

CLEMENS, LEVY & CO., Cotton Commission Merchants, RICHMOND, VA.

We desire to call the attention of cotton planters and cotton shippers to the advantages offered by Richmond as a cotton market, and so forth from them a trial. Our market is now firmly established. We have perfected arrangements by which we can ship both to domestic and to foreign ports on as favorable terms as can be done from Norfolk or from any other Southern port. Practically this places Richmond on the coast. Our Mr. Levy, formerly from Enfield, N. C., gives his special attention to the sampling and weighing of cotton. Liberal advances made on consignments. Correspondence solicited. Refer by permission to: John B. Davis, Esq., President Planters National Bank, Richmond, Va.; Isaac Davenport, Esq., President First National Bank, Richmond, Va.; Messrs. S.
