

to give his skill to the tanks, etc.

Haven't heard from Roscoe Harrell as yet---Come on, Roscoe, drop us a line.

Joe Braxton had to be transferred to California before he got a furlough. We hope he passed through Bardstown on his way home.

Jesse Evans of the machine shop was thinking about enlisting but decided he was needed elsewhere.

Luscuis Baker is expecting to be classified any day now.

NEWS FROM THE WEAVING DEPARTMENT, DYEING AND FINISHING DEPARTMENT GOES TO PRESS

We have learned from a very reliable source that there have been several cock fights in this territory lately. The jinks is still on Nolie Robinson; he can't even win on a rooster and he is so far behind in that little game of Pup that he will never catch up. We understand that several of the boys are talking to themselves lately.

The Caramount Cats are trying to play Baseball this year. After the first practice, most of the star players had to roll out of bed the next day and pull up by something.

Score of 1st Game - R.M. High	7	-	Car.	0
Score of 2nd Game - R.M. High	9	-	Car.	3

Cpl. Aubrye Salmon has been transferred from tank operation to Quartermaster Corps of tank division - likes this much better.

Dave Ezzelle is back with us now. We are all glad to have him back. He is doing stop motion work now. He is also putting on weight mighty fast.

LRJ has been down with the scarlet fever for the last 30 days. Wonder if it was a ruse to keep from rocking that little girl.

J. Raper has been in the hospital again - same old trouble. He is out again now as fit as ever.

Russell Langley has just become the proud papa of a bouncing baby boy, weight 8 pounds. He took the day off to brag about it.

O. B. Salmon has received his 1-A card and is all primed to go. He will be with you boys in about 30 days.

As yet the Dyeing and finishing departments have no more men in the service, and still consist of "old men and sweater girls."

"Summer draws on" - so Walt Greenman is trying to get together a girls Softball team to challenge the so-called men's hard ballers. At present the bets are all on the girls' team, unless the men wear Blinders.

By the way Little Mary won the prize for being the Number One Sweater Girl at Caramount. Her sister ran her a close second, and as Rose said - "it's in the family".
