

3A Dramatize Stories In Class

We have dramatized many stories in our class. These stories were taken from our reading lessons. The ones that we enjoyed most were, "Toy Fairy's Party," "The Three Little Hens," and "Three Little Rabbits."

We plan to have a Christmas party in our room and exchange gifts. We are wishing all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Health Lectures Heard By 9B

In our Civics class the 9B is studying a unit concerning community evils. We were fortunate to have Mrs. Beryl Rogers and Mr. Howard Fitts from the health department to come and give the class talks on how to prevent one community evil—ill health.

We were told by Mr. Fitts and Mrs. Rogers how germs can spread from a sick to a well person through close association, filth, water, food insects, and rats.

We can help wipe out the community evil, ill health, by screening our homes, draining away water, quarantining, cleanliness, and disposing sewage and garbage in a sanitary way.

Christmas Quotations

I heard the bells on Christmas Day

Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the
The words repeat

Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Veterans Hold Annual Barbecue

The members of the Veterans Farmer Training Program of Lincoln High School Chapel Hill, North Carolina held their annual barbecue on Friday night, December 9, 1949 in the school cafeteria.

The menu consisted of pit-cooked barbecue, cabbage slaw, coffee, punch, bread ice cream and cake. The cakes, primarily chocolate and cocoanut, were made by wives of some of the veterans.

Mr. Booker T. McNeill, veteran instructor of Lillte River School, Bahama, N. C. was the principal speaker for the occasion. Since the affair was in celebration of the completion of a year's work on the farm, Mr. McNeill urged each veteran to study his farming program in an effort to improve and raise his standard of living through better crops and better livestock, better farm records, soil conservation and beautified homes and homesteads.

Rev. J. R. Manley, pastor of Rock Hill Baptist Church and acting Chairman of the Agricultural Advisory Council of Lincoln High School, encouraged each veteran to put Christ in his plans for 1950 thereby increasing their assurance for success.

The banquet was under the direction of Mr. E. O. Bovian and Mr. Harold McNeill, veteran instructors, R. D. Smith, Agriculture teacher, and food preparation and serving was done by Miss R. P. Pope, Home Economic teacher and the Lincoln High School cafeteria staff consisting of Mrs. Druseilla Suggs and Miss Annie Winstead with Misses Rosalie Register, Mary Norwood and Rebecca Harris serving as waitresses.

One of the high lights of the evening was enjoyed by all when some of the veterans were called upon to give some of their accomplishments for the year. Special guest for the evening were Mrs. Freeman Rogers, mother of John R. Rogers and Mr. Wilson Cotton, father of Wilson Cotton. Mr. Cotton is a veteran of World War I. Both Rogers and Cotton are outstanding veterans in the local program.
