News From 1A

We have an experiment in our class.
 We call it a Surprise Flower.
 We use soft coal, bluing, iodize salt, water, a spoon and a pan.

THINGS TO DO

The first day we put three lumps of coal in a pan. We covered the coal with 2 tablespoons of salt, 2 tablespoons of bluing and 2 tablespoons water.

The second day we sprinkled the coal with 2 tablespoons of salt and 2 tablespoons of water.

The third day we did the same thing. Every day we add salt and water. We are watching it grow. It is really a Surprise Flower.

The 6C and 7A girls' combine won the girls' championship by winning three games in a row and the boys from the 7B and 8A combine won in the boys' division.

The 6C and 7A girls won their first game from the 6A by a one-sided score of 13-2. This same group won the second game from 6B, with a score of 10-7. The final game was won from 7B and 8A by a score of 15-12, thus winning the championship.

The 7B and 8A found it easy going throughout the tournament in three games. The first game was won from the 6B by the score of 29-14. The above team won the second tournament game from ...A boys, with a final score of 28-11. The third game was won from 6C and 7A boys with a final score of 32-18.

Both winning teams will receive trophies.

If You Can't Bark, Don't Bite!

Last Friday, January 27th, I was leaving the school gymnasium with a group of high school students, following a game with our arch rival, Hillside. The Lincoln High girls won 27-21, but the boys lost. The group was criticizing certain individuals on the boys' team, saying such things as: "The Lincoln High School boys can't play basketball." "They try to star too much!" "And there is too much individual playing."

The problem seems to be to get this group as well as others, to support the teams, boys' and girls, no matter how they come out. Some praise is due each and every individual on the teams, whether they win or lose. It is sportsmanship to give complete cooperation, in putting over the athletic program. If you cannot bark (praise) don't bite!

Class 1B News

This is our first writing of news since Christmas and we must say that Santa was very good to us and that made us have a good time while we were out of school.

We lost one of our classmates since Christmas. Her name was Albertine Baldwin. She moved to another town.

In January, we learned about Ben Franklin and how he saved his pennies, nickels and dimes when he was a little boy. Some of us said that we too could save some of our pennies and nickels which we spend for gum and candy. We have saved some of them and put them in a class bank. We now have $2.37 in the bank and 13 girls and boys have money in the bank. We hope to buy some War Stamps.

Our teacher gave the class tests Jan. 25-27. It was fun for us to have tests in reading, numbers, writing and art. Some did very well and others did poorly. We hope to do better.

January 30th was a big day for our class because it was our first day to come to school in the morning. We also gave our first program in chapel. We sang songs, recited poems and told the other girls and boys what we had learned about "Caring for the Teeth."

We spent a happy day.

6A Students Study Ancient Greece

We have just finished the chapter on Greek cities of long ago. Sparta and Athens were the two most important city states of ancient Greece. The Spartans were warlike people, that is, they liked to fight. The Athenians liked the better things of life, such as drama and music. Athens was the greatest democracy of Greece. Pericles was an outstanding promoter of democracy. Socrates and Plato were great Greek thinkers. The Greeks made many contributions to the world, some of which were: government, drama, art, architecture, literature, wisdom, and patterns for beautiful paintings.

Othello Girls See Hillside Plays

The following members of the Othello Club went to Hillside High School of Durham, North Carolina, to see the first presentations of the year by the class in Dramatics: Rosalie Register, Alice Paige, Rebecca Harris and Mary Stroud.

All four of the plays presented were very entertaining.

The class in Dramatics at Hillside has tentatively set the week of February 13 for bringing a one-act play entitled "Looney John" to the Lincoln auditorium.

ACTIVITIES OF The Othello Club

Several members of the Othello Club with the adviser, Mrs. M. D. Turner, attended the Drama Clinic at Price High School in Salisbury, N. C., which proved most helpful to them.

The club has begun rehearsals of the three-act play, "Take a Chance," by Easter C. Averill.

The festival play which is to be presented at Dudley High School in Greensboro, N. C., March 13 or 14, is scheduled to begin rehearsals as soon as play books arrive.

Twenty-two members of the Othello Club are expected to attend the Drama Clinic at Fayetteville State Teachers College in Fayetteville, N. C., on February 4.
