

With The Alumni Of L. H. S.

At the suggestion of a large number of our readers we are planning to bring to you some notes about some of the people who have been graduated from Lincoln High School.

Norman Barbee of the class of '47 was graduated with honors from North Carolina College in Durham this year. He is doing graduate work at Howard University now.

Riley Barnette of the class of '47 was also graduated from North Carolina College and he is teaching in Illinois.

A large number of the members of the class of 1951 have entered various colleges this fall: Reuben Williams is at Tennessee State; William Burnett, our former editor, is at Virginia Union University; Bruce Atwater, Shaw University; William Hargraves, Hampton Institute; and Ernest Weaver and Alfred Perry, A. & T. College in Greensboro.

The largest group from the class of 1951 is attending North Carolina College in Durham. The group includes Vivian Swain, Margaret Battle, Delores Hogan, Johnnie Mae Jones, Mary Louise Stroud, Alice Page, Georgia McCoy, Samuel Atwater, Mary Norwood, and Mathew Mason. Six of these students are already members of the North Carolina College Band.

Addie Mae Winstead of the class of '51 was married on September 22.
