

Four Student Teachers Begin Practice Here

Four practice teachers, three from North Carolina College at Durham, North Carolina and from Shaw University at Raleigh, North Carolina have been scheduled to do work here. Mr. E. J. Cumming, Miss J. Jones, and Miss S. Nichols are of North Carolina College, and Miss R. H. Brewer comes from Shaw University.

Mr Cummings, a biology major, is a native of Richlands, North Carolina. He practices under Mr. E. D. Lowery, general science, and Mrs. E. F. Robinson, Biology.

Miss Jones, a commerce major, practices under Mrs. M. G. Frazier in commerce and business arithmetic. Miss Jones' home is in Durham.

Miss Nichols is a physical education major of North Carolina College. Her practice work is supervised by Mr. Kornegay in physical education and health.

Her home town is Greenville, North Carolina.

The practice work period for the North Carolina College students began January 12, 1953 and will continue through March 4, 1953.

Miss Brewer, a native of Chapel Hill, is a home economics major at Shaw University. While here she practiced under Miss R. P. Pope in home economics, starting October 13, 1952 through January 30, 1953.

SENIOR CLASS NEWS

Have you noticed any change in the dress of the seniors each Friday? The idea originated in the occupations class when two of the senior boys came to school handsomely dressed. It was suggested that the members of the class set aside on day in the week for improving personal appearance. As a result, some of the seniors looked better each day.
