 a home, a wife and children.
 Charlie Booth: "In the year 1963, I hope to be a secretary in some large firm and probably a housewife."
 Inez Alston: "In 1963 I will be an army nurse, probably married."
 Dorothy Weaver: "In 1963 I will be head nurse at some large and important hospital."
 Ruby Booth: "Ten years from now I'm going to be a housewife."
 Ernestine King: "By 1963 I want to be sewing in my own shop, making clothes for my husband and children, and maybe others."
 Dolores Farrington: "Ten years from now I will be in the Women's Air Force, or married."
 Wenzo Thompson: "Ten years from now, I, Wenzo Thompson, shall have obtained my masters degree in mathematics and begun my career as associate professor of mathematics at the University of _____."
 Edward Battle: "I expect to play pro-basketball and to be married ten years from now."
 Betty Dooley: "I will be a History teacher at Lincoln High School ten years from now."
 Johnny Goins: "I expect to make a career in the Air Force ten years from now."
 Julia Bell Purefoy: "I will be a registered nurse ten years from now."
 Emma Hairston: "I am going to be teaching in some high school."
 Barbara Edward: "By 1963 I'd like to be a registered nurse and married."

Mae Farrington became editor of our Lincoln Echo.

-Class History-

second year, there came an alert teacher of mathematics who became our record teacher along with Mr. Kornegay. He was Mr. Earl D. Lowery. During this year some of the boys began to feel the call to service and went into Uncle Sam's Army leaving us with only forty-two classmates.

At the beginning of the third year we were fortunate to obtain our same teachers, Mr. R. O. Kornegay and Mr. E. D. Lowery. That was the year we gave our grand Junior-Senior Prom, an event long to be remembered. Yet, there were other gala affairs mingled with our education.

Saddest of all the events affecting our high school career was the loss of one of our record teachers, Mr. R. O. Kornegay.

Bobby Hagood, a former student of Hillside High School, decided that he wanted to be graduated from a school of worthy reputation, so he joined the last stage of our journey. Again in our Senior year as in other years, we lost more students, now we have an enrollment of twenty-four.

To sum up the history of this class I must say that we were outstanding in every branch of school life. In sports, we had Edward "Jackie" Battle, Johnny "Junebug" Goins, Ross Farrington, Nelson "Red" Riggsby, Benjamin "Reb" Jones, Ola Mae Farrington, and Inez Alston.

In music—James "Scott" Pendergraph, Betty "Chunk" Dooley, Nelson Riggsbee, Bernice Johnson, Ola Mae Farrington, and Charlie Mae Booth. In drama—Inez Alston, Emma Hariston, Walter Jackson, Ross Farrington, Ernestine King and Ola Mae Farrington, secretary of club.

Inez Alston became president of the Student Council and Ola
