To be in the weakest camp is to be in the strongest school.

Ine Lincoln Echo

The Voice of Lincoln From the Printed Tage

The foundation of every state is the education of its youth.

PRICE: TEN CENTS

OLUME XLIV—NUMBER I

School faculty; teachers have

Among them are Mr. W. D.

Peerman, our coach and Physical Education instructor; M.s.

Perry, our music teacher, Mrs.

Battle, one of our English and

College in Durham, North Caro-

The others are Mr. S. D. Car-loss, graduate of Tuskeegee Institute. Mr. E. Montgomery,

Teacher's carege is now at

Linear High School and the Special Education teacher; Mrs.

Daniels, graduate of Howard

University in Washington, D. C., art teacher. It is very in-art through workshops on the

Lincoln High School community. I am confident that the stu-intergrated basis.

different ones added.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, NOV. 21, 1961

Betty Baldwin Crowned Miss Lincoln Hi 1961

Student Council Installation Held

dignity and complete scriousness before the entire Student Body and faculty.

was two-fold—to allow the stu-Zillah; Zillah, is Christine dents and faculty an opportu- Harris; the daughter of a nity to see the Student Council wealthy inn keeper, and Anna, officers as a group and to offi- the enfeebled wife of the inn cially install the officers for the keeper, Carol Jean Farrington.

Council are as follows: Presi-Each mother wore the identical dent, Donald Mason; Vice Presi-D. Turner. number of her son's football dent, Cubie Bragg; Third-Vice President, Dougles Mason; Sec-The Halloween Carnival was Secretary, Jean Suitt; Treasurer, a hilarious event at Lincoln. Robert Edwards; Sergeani-at-Prizes were given to the persons arms. Roland Rogers; Parliamentarian, George Jones; Reporter, Carl Edwards.

> (Parents, Teachers, Students, Association)

The PTSA of Lincoln High held its first executive meeting of the year at the Community Center, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

several topics outlined.

At the first regular meeting of

Vice President, Mr. Treasurer, Mrs. knowledged by the audience.

(continued on page 4)

Our Homecoming Extravaganza

On September 29 of this year the stage was set for the largest and most extravaganta Homecoming in the history of Lincoln High School. There was a beautiful array of floats and decorated cars. These floats and cars were entered by school organizations, class clubs, and private organizations and businesses in the community.

homecoming Our lovely queen, Miss Betty Baldwin, reigned over the festivities She was attended by Misses Carrie Webb, Mary Barbee, and Mary Frances Eubanks.

Miss Judy Baldwin, younger sister to Betty, reigned as Miss Junior High. Serving as attendants to Miss Junior High were Miss Andrea Smith and Miss Lillian Farrington.

event, the "Mighty Tigers" about the most successful and trounced Hamlet before a record complimentary Homecoming in homecoming crowd, by a state the history of this school.

BETTY BALDWIN

Careful planning and un-To and the long awaited selfish collaboration brought

Thomas N. Bynum

The Othello Club Presents "The

The cast consists of the following John Fikes, as the prosperous Aaron; Carrie Webb, Rachel, his strong minded wife; The purpose of this assembly Earl Geer, their son in love with

The dramatics class was or-The officers of the Student ganized September 29, 1961, under the supervision of Mrs. M.

The 1961-62 officers elected are Earl Geer, President; Laura retary, Mary Cole, Assistant Burnett, Vice President; Carol Farrington, Secretary; and Charlie Pearl Cotton, Assistant Secretary.

Choral Club News

Participating in the gala Homecoming events was a: exciting experience for Vera Cordal, Ruth Farrington, William Smith and Eugene Lyons who rode the Choral Club's beautifuk green and white float in the parade.

A most gracious letter of thanks has been received by The program for the year was Mrs. Harry, our director, from coordinated with ways and Rev. Manley following our First means and the budget among the Baptist Church service honoring Mr. William McCauley Jr., our beloved teacher of last year.

During our PTSA meeting Officers for the year are: program on November 8, the President, Mr. Clifton Stone; girls' chrous sang a beautiful Clark arrangement of "Ave Verum" Egerton; Secretary, Mr. R. L. by Mozart and was warmly ac-

With such a promisiry begin-Chairmen of Committees are ning we are looking toward a very fruitful year.

Separation Add Six Instructors Joined Lines State State By Van Edwards One might say there has high goals scholastically as well say often, I have all I have ever officers of the Student Counzation of the class of the c been some everyday arithmetic as morally and that they will enjoyed". Unquote. been some everyday arithmetic as morally and that they will be some everyday arithmetic as morally and that they will be some everyday arithmetic as morally and that they will be some everyday arithmetic as morally and that they will be succeed in all their endeavors".

Mr. William D. Peerman: "I the year 1361-1962, on Friday, the one act play, "The Contrite enjoy working in a situation November 3, 1961 in the Lincoln Spirit" by Albert Howse in the enjoy working in a situation of the contribution of t

School faculty; teachers have and Mrs. L. M. Child in saying: where the students and faculty high School Auditorium. In a Christmas where the students and for a com- "tormal assembly" the irea lead.

"Gestitude is the memory of the work hand in hand for a com- "tormal assembly" the irea lead. heart; therefore forget not to mon cause".

News In Brief

French teacher, Mr. H. Bur-chette, Battle, I am to note, are graduates of The first social of the school son, North Carolina, which Lincoln High School. Inciden- year was held in the gymtorium proved so far to be our strongest tally all of these are college September 21st fully attended opponent. graduates of North Carolina by the faculty and students.

The "Tigers" re well on their way for anothe championship. All scheduled ames have been played and wol. graduate of wiston-Salem

There were everal new floats in the Homeoming parade this

The Band Boosters Club reteresting to note that she is the centive gave a social in the gymfirst Negro in the South to teach torium, for the band.

We, the Senior Class, would After being interviewed the like to welcome the 95 seventh teachers made the following grade students to Lincoln High, remark. Mrs. G. Battle: and hope that their stay at Linam happy to be a part of the coln will be as joyful as ours.

Lincoln played its arch rival dents here at Lincoln have set Henderson Institute of Hender-

THE LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL CALENDAR OF EVENTS By COLLINS JONES

Thanksgiving Holidays NOV. 23-24

End of Third Month NOV. 30

Basketball (Little River at Chapel Hill) DEC. Basketball (Chapel Hill at Little River)

P. T. S. A. Meeting 5

Basketball (Hillsboro at Chapel Hill)

15 Basketball (Merrick-Moore at Chausi Hill) 20 Basketball (Chapel Hill at Smithfield)

20 School close for Christmas Holidays

Johnny Perry Lincoln High Band

The Lincoln High School PIA

elected Mr. Chica Stone, presi-

On Friday, October 20th,

Mother's the was sponsored by the Homecoming Committee.

with the funniest costume.

dent for the year 1961-62.

Elects New Officers For The Year

Lincoln High School Marching Band started the year off with a high-stepping start. It's first appearance was our Homecompated also in Horton Righ's, Henderson's and Shaw University's Homecomings.

It is looking forward to participating in North Carolina Col- Farrington; lege's Homecoming Parade, Cecelia H. Barnes. tne Beat Duke and Chapel Hill (eontinued on page 2)

The 1961-62 edition of the

ing activities. The band partici- this year officers were installed.