

ORMONDSVILLE, - - N. C. WEDNESDAY, July 12, 1893.

NEWS SUMMARY. AT HOME AND ABROAD. GENERAL NEWS.

Crops are looking fine in this section. The holidays are over and we have knuckled down to work. Our tobacco farmers have commenced curing their tobacco.

Our tobacco farmers have commenced curing their tobacco. A public school building will be under construction at this place in a few days.

Misses Olga Turnage and Esther Hardy, of this place, is visiting in Pitt county this week. Miss Clyde Mosely commenced teaching the free school at Saints' Delight Monday.

Miss Lee Bryan, of Lenoir county, is visiting Misses Annie and Dora Frizzelle of near here this week. Mr. W. A. Wingate, of Washington, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity has returned home.

Prof. W. E. Ormond and wife, of Burlington, who have been visiting relatives and friends here have returned home. Our people are daily arguing what the price of cotton will be this fall. That is something we should all feel interested in.

Rev. A. L. Ormond and wife, who have been visiting here for several weeks have not been able to return on account of the illness of Mrs. Ormond. Remember you take no chance of not getting your money when you insure with W. J. Jordan, district agent, Snow Hill. His agency has never failed to collect the money for his patrons.

Mr. J. P. Taylor, traveling photographer pitched his tent here last Thursday and is now ready to do first-class work in his line. Those who want their "beauty struck" had better come soon, as he will not be with us long. See ad. in another column.

Rev. Mr. Wingate, who recently graduated with high honors at Alexandria, Va., has been spending several days with relatives in this section. As he leaves this section for his new field of labor he carries with him our best wishes, hoping that he may do much good in the vineyard of the Lord.

SNOW HILL DOTS. Snow Hill, July 5th. Watermelons are getting to be plentiful with our people.

Mr. F. A. Simpson is home again selling goods to his home trade. Mr. Charles Gold and mother, of Wilson, spent last Wednesday in town visiting friends.

The weather has been very gratifying to our farmers in the way of saving their wheat crop &c. The boys enjoy themselves in the after-noon bathing in old Contentnea waters that flows by our town.

Mr. J. F. Miller left for his home in Kinston last Friday. He says his stay in our burg was very pleasant. Monday week was quite a busy day here with our county officials returning tax lists, &c. A large crowd was here.

The repairs on the court house is about finished, and it certainly presents a nice, neat, clean appearance inside. Mr. J. T. H. Harper, of our town, was the first one to have a cotton bloom. He had one on the 26th inst. Mr. Harper is one of our best farmers.

Miss Adel Galloway, who has been visiting her brother, Capt. Swift Galloway for the past few weeks has returned home, much to the regret of some of our boys. The barber shop has been moved in the rear room of Mr. W. J. Jordan's insurance office on 3rd street, near the court house. It is more convenient now than heretofore.

H. C. Harrison, Esq., of Kinston, was here one day last week. He will open business here this week. Mr. Harrison is well known to our people and we welcome him among us. The post office has been moved further up town, near the residence of Mr. Arvil Sugg, where the patrons of the post office have more room than they did in the old quarters. The change is satisfactory with the public.

A BLOODY AFFRAY. On last Saturday night a bloody affray took place at Ridge Spring, between Wm. Dail, a young man of this section and some colored men. It seemed that after Mess. Holton & Spier closed up their store, Mr. Dail went to a house near by where a colored man was selling cider and fired off his pistol once or twice among a crowd of colored men that were in the house, one of the balls taking effect in the arm of one of the colored men. Mr. Dail was knocked down and beaten very badly on the head and dragged out of the house, but he was still alive at last accounts. It is said that there was some trouble existing between Mr. Dail and one of the colored men in the house; it is also said that Dail was under the influence of liquor.

ANOTHER SENSATIONAL. Edward McCarthy Jumps from Brooklyn Bridge and is Seriously Injured. Wilmington Star. NEW YORK, July 3.—Edward McCarthy, aged 24, a bar-tender, jumped from Brooklyn Bridge at half-past five o'clock to-night and sustained injuries which will probably result in death. Judging from his last conversation, before taking his leap he was anxious to emulate the example of Steve Brodie and share in the bridge jumper's notoriety. When taken from the river his side was black from his feet to his shoulder, where he struck the water, his body resembling Bob Odium after the latter had taken his fatal jump. McCarthy suffered terribly from hemorrhages at the mouth for an hour after he was taken from the water. This is the fourteenth case of jumping from Brooklyn bridge, and the third in two weeks. McCarthy jumped through a greater space than any of his predecessors.

TWO OLD LOVE LETTERS. Two old time love letters dated in 1820 recently came to our notice in one of our exchanges which was clipped from an old issue of the People's Companion, and are as follows: MADAM:—

Most worthy of admiration, after long consideration and much meditation on the great reputation you possess in the nation I have a strong inclination to become your relation. On your approbation of the declaration I shall make preparation to remove my attention to a more convenient station to profess my admiration, and it such obligation is worthy of observation and can obtain commiseration it will be an aggrandizement beyond all joy and calculation of yours Sam Dissimulation.

The following is the still more curious answer: SIR:— I perused your oration with much deliberation at the great infatuation of your imagination to show such veneration on so slight foundation. But after examination and a more serious contemplation I found it was the fruit of recreation had sprung from ostentation to display your education by a rather odd enumeration of words of the same determination though of great variation in each insignificant, now without disputation your laborious application in so tedious an occupation deserves commendation and thinking sufficient gratification I am without hesitation yours, Mary Moderation.

A negro man, supposed to be drunk, who was lying on the track, was run over and beheaded by a train near Burlington. Dr. Hogue, of Cleveland Co., who was shot by Wm. Etters on June 12 died Saturday. There was some talk of lynching Etters.

MRS. ELEIZA HATCH. HEART DISEASE 20 YEARS. Mrs. Eleiza Hatch, of Hills District, Co. Albemarle, Va. Dear Sirs: For 20 years I was troubled with heart disease. Would frequently have falling spells and swooned. I had to get up out of bed to breathe. Had pain in my left side and back most of the time; at last I was dropped. I was very nervous, and nearly went out. The less excitement would come to me, the more I felt. I had much trouble in getting to bed, and would not sleep. I have no pain, no vomiting, dropsy, no wind and no cough or other disagreeable symptoms. I am on a stomach of food without any trouble and consider myself cured. Heart Disease Cured. I have now 42 years of age, and made me a well woman. I am now 42 years of age, and made me a well woman. I am now 42 years of age, and made me a well woman.
