

Column White

NEWS FROM YOUR SQUADRON

HEADQUARTERS AND HEADQUARTERS
By Cpl. Alex Karanikas

People are saying our squadron area is the best looking on the post. If that's true, we shall do our best to keep it that way.

Soon to leave for Aviation Cadet training are Pvt. John W. Yount and PFCs Alvert McRae and Gaddis Young.

T/Sgt. George Barnette, Sergeant Major of Assistant S-1, after not taking exercises for three months, injured his foot the second day out and won't take them for another week at least...T/Sgt. John Fields of the Locator Files remembers the man who phoned from Gate 1 wanting to know how to get off the post. Also the new GI who did not know which was the middle wing of Post Headquarters!

Basketball score: 797th TSS--17, Hdq. and Hdq.--15. We can do better than that. A bigger cheering section next time may help.

799th TECH SCHOOL SQUADRON
By Cpl. Don Sutherland

Congratulations are in order for PFC Tim Callahan and Pvt. Herman Scott, both of whom took advantage of recent furloughs to get married.

The squadron will lose its Supply Officer in the very near future when Lt. William S. Whitlow leaves for flying school. In line with the romantic policy of 799th men, Lt. Whitlow returned from his Christmas furlough with news of his engagement to Miss Marilyn McVeigh, of Chicago.

794th Tech Sch Squadron
By Sgt. Bill Spencer

PFC "Gunboat Stasiak" just in from Ipswich, Mass., the place from where those delicious clams come. S/Sgt Cloyd sure is going to be a happier man when his boss S/Sgt Cox gets back. The reason, well, you ask him.

The eyes of the Squadron are focussing upon what is to be the attraction of the year—a ball game between the "Yanks" composed of representatives of the North, and the "Rebels", composed of Southern lads. "Yanks" Captain is PFC Komar, and Captain of the "Rebels" is Pvt Hogan. The old master himself S/ Sgt. Charlie Brady is of course on the side of the "Yanks."

Squadron artistic work is handled by PFC John Babnis who has due to an ailment been in the hospital. We hope for a speedy recovery.

MEDIC ALBUM
By PFC Nino Lo Bello

Nomination for "Miss Seymour Johnson Field"—Miss Marie T. Larivier, ANC...And don't forget Sunday at 1530, Vin Flair will croon over WGBR. Flair is a graduate of Johnny Long's ork...S/Sgt. Merie Hild snores with a mid-western accent...S patriotic the way Patients' Mess keeps boiling those old coffee grounds over and over again. That's using the old bean.....Cpl. Filmore O'Grady claims the spinal column is a collection of bones running up and down your back to keep you from being legs clean up to your neck.

796th Tech Sch Squadron
By PFC J. E. Rooney

The repeat showing of "Barracks Nightmares" was a tremendous success with a large crowd showing up to see the rib-tickling spectacle.

Show was written by Pvt Harry Austin. He also directed. Orchestra leader was Pvt. Eddie Morgan, who was a well known band leader in civilian life. Also in the cast were Pts Migliarelli, Garry, Brown and Piola.

791st TECH SCHOOL SQUADRON
By Pvt. S. R. Dolin

We enter this paper with the proverbial chip on our shoulders and a challenge on our lips...We hold as our motto... "The 791st is First in everything, and right now we're featuring basketball..We've won all games so far, trouncing the M.P.s 53 to 10 on the way up.....1st Sgt. George C. Craft, S/Sgt. John J. Bartos, Sgt. Danny Towse and Pvts. John Dornbrack, Henry Reynolds, Alex Miles, Louis Cocchi, and Nick Braco make up this solid combo of hoopscoopers...PFC Forlando does all the managing honors.

795th TECH SCHOOL SQUAD
By Cpl. R. H. Clark

S/Sgt. Hubert Pring of Supply gives a touch of home to the Army, travel weary shipments of new men always find their bunks ready. All they have to do is jump into them..S/Sgt. Russell Miller, carburetor instructor, and Miss Ellen Jones of Dudley, N.C., were married by the Rev. W. A. Cade, pastor of St. Paul Methodist church in Goldsboro last Saturday in the parish house.

792nd TECH SCHOOL SQUAD
By 1st Sgt. J. J. Bellas

Admitted to the hospital recently was Major C. W. Bielefeld. The Major, who has been with us since September has been doing a bang-up job. Here's hoping for a speedy recovery, Major.

Among those to take the fatal step is Sgt. Solomon Moskowitz, who is taking advantage of a seven-day furlough to marry a lovely belle from Brooklyn. Congratulations... The 792nd claims more Pappas than any other squadron on the field.

798th TECH SCHOOL SQUAD
By Pvt. John L. Stoutenburg
The first formal dance of the season was held Jan. 15 at the Service Club, with the largest turnout of girls yet seen on the post.

Feature of the evening were the free refreshments, including the best chicken salad sandwiches, cake, and punch, ever tasted by a lowly G.I.

Terry and The Pirates

Patrol Fails To Contact Main Body

