

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA AWARD PRESENTED

Tim Daughtry is the 1967 recipient of the John Philip Sousa Award of Smithfield High School, presented to the outstanding graduating senior in band musicianship.

Presented annually to the senior band member selected for the honor by his fellow musicians, the award is made to the person who is judged to have contributed the most to the band and to the community during his four years of high school.

The award is co-sponsored by the Smithfield Rotary Club and Instrumentalist Magazine.

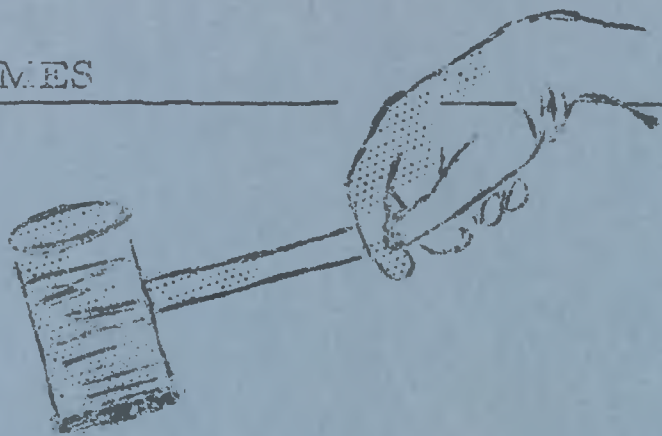

Rotary President Tom Wright presented the award to Tim during the annual spring band concert Tuesday night, May 9. Tim directed the band in one of the selections on the program.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Ann Jones, Smithfield High School senior, won second place in the first state-wide Fine Arts Festival of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs held in Greensboro. The award carries with it a price of fifty dollars. She was sponsored by the Smithfield Junior Woman's Club.

Ann's entry was an abstract painting titled "The Woodsman". She is a pupil of Mrs. Fred Adams in the Smithfield School.

A man walked into the doctor's office with a pelican on his head. "You need help," the doctor said. "I sure do," replied the pelican. "Get this man out from under me."

LAW DAY AWARD

Joe Morgan, a Smithfield High School senior, won first place in the public speaking contest sponsored Friday night, May 5, in the courthouse in Smithfield by the Johnston County Bar Association in observance of Law Day.

Joe will be presented a $250 scholarship by Mr. Wiley Narron, president of the Johnston County Bar Association, at graduation exercises at Smithfield High School.

Joe was coached for the contest by Mrs. Martha Dacus, Smithfield High School English and speech teacher.

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK

National Music Week, May 7-14, was inaugurated in Smithfield on May 9 under the sponsorship of the Aeolian Music Club by the presentation of high school piano students of Miss Flora Canaday in their annual spring recital.

A highlight of the week was the presentation of the Aeolian Music Club's Stella Johnson Award, given each year since 1953 in memory of Mrs. Johnson who founded the club in 1928, making this the fortieth anniversary of the Aeolian Club.

The award this year was made to Gloria Little. Receiving honorable mention for this award were Jane Holt and Tim Daughtry, both of whom were presented gifts from the Aeolian Club. Special recognition was also given to Gary Wages, a senior from Falcon who has studied this year with Miss Canaday.