Roused By Officers As Flames Take Home

Most of Furniture Destroyed in Fayetteville Fire

(Special to The Star) March

Awakened by a city policeman pounding on their front door, Mrs. W. A. Fry and her son, Duval Fry, found their home, at 121 Mumford street, in a light blaze and escaped to the street only a house fell in. The net property loss caused by the fire is estimated at $3,000. insurance carried on the house being insufficient to cover the damage. Most of the household furniture was de-

Among the articles saved by firemen were a chest of silver and a trunk containing war relles belonging to Mrs. Fry's son, Captain P. T. Fry, of the United States army, including a decoration awarded Captain Fry for distinguished gallantry in the battle of the Hindenburg line. The flames reduced to a solid mass of metal a handsome silver pitcher presented a number of years ago by the citizens of Red Springs to Mrs. Fry's husband, the late W. A. Fry, an Atlantic Coast Line engineer, for heroic conduct in saving the life of a child by making his way to the pilot of his engine and lifting the tot from the track of a trestle,

The flames, which were discovered about 2 o'clock, are thought to have originated from a smouldering spark

Firemen were delayed several minutes in reaching the fire by the passing of a freight train.
