NEW BERN, Sept. 16. — Miss Pattie Rodman Guion and Ensign John Durand Patterson, USN, were married Saturday evening, September 12, at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. R. E. McClure, pastor, officiated at the ring ceremony.

The colonial chancel of the church was artistically arranged with southern smilax, baskets of white gladioli and standards of cathedral candles.

Ushers

Ushers were Lieut. Thomas Hyman Guion, USA, of Edgewood Arsenal, Md., brother of the bride; Deane F. Bell, of Washington, cousin of the bridegroom; Capt. Elkin S. Dew, USMC, of Cherry Point; Ensign William E. Cherry, USNR; Joe M. Anderson and Norfleet M. Gibbs, all of New Bern. Eugene McSorley attended the cousin as best man.

Misses Julia Guion and Emma Katie Guion, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore orchid and pink and carried contrasting arm bouquets of dahlias. Miss Harriet Lane Guion, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a bouffant ashes of roses dress of moire and net, and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of sweetheart roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Owen Haywood Guion. Her wedding gown was of ivory satin and rosepoint lace, the illusion veil caught at the cap with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a necklace of seed pearls, the gift of her father to her mother on their wedding day. Her bridal bouquet was of gardenias and white orchids.

Cake Cutting

After the wedding an informal cake cutting was given at the home of the bride's parents. The couple then left for a short wedding trip.

Bride's Family

Mrs. Patterson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Haywood Guion. Her paternal grandfather was the late Judge Owen H. Guion, Superior court judge and speaker of the State House of Representatives, whose family has been prominent in Eastern North Carolina since 1730. Her paternal grandmother, for whom she was named, is a member of the Rodman and Blount families, also influential in the region for many years.

Her maternal grandparents were the late Thomas G. Hyman and Elizabeth Greter Sloan Hyman. She is the great-great-granddaughter of the late Rev. John A. Greter, one of the founders and the first pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro. After having graduated from New Bern high school, the bride attended Woman's college at Greensboro. She made her debut in 1941 at the Terschorean club's debutante ball in Raleigh.

Ensign Patterson is the son of Captain Donald Flanner Patterson, USN, and Mrs. Patterson, of New Bern and Philadelphia. He was graduated from the New Mexico Military Institute and studied at the Columbian Preparatory school in Washington, D. C., before entering the United States Naval academy at Annapolis. Since graduating from the academy last December he has been on active duty with the Atlantic fleet.

Here's Quiz For Soldier's Wife To Pass—Or Else Stay At Home

BY RUTH MILLET
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The wife who flunks this test hasn't any business following her husband around the country from one Army camp to another. So before you put your furniture in storage and rent your house, ask yourself these few questions:

Can I leave my home town behind me, instead of expecting every place I go to measure up to it? (Mrs. George C. Marshall, wife of the United States Army Chief of Staff, recently had this to say to Army wives: "You ought to carry your home town with you. Don't keep thinking of the customs and ways back home.")

Could I be happy living in a house or a room that is far less comfortable and convenient than what I have been used to?

Could I withstand the temptation to share all my small worries and problems with my husband, and be willing to assume all responsibility for running the house and taking care of the children?

WE MUST BE GOOD SOLDIER, TOO

Could I get along with the wives of my husband's associates?

Could I find enough to do to keep busy, so that my husband wouldn't have a dissatisfied, lonesome woman on his hands?

Could I keep my nose out of my husband's business, instead of encouraging him in being dissatisfied or becoming jealous of the man above him?

Would I try to make life easier and more pleasant for my husband, or would I expect him to worry about keeping me happy and contented?

If she can't say "Yes" to every one of these questions, a service man's wife had better not follow him around the country. She would just be in the way.

Pearsall Memorial Church Plans Meeting This Sunday

These Budget-Wise Recipes Both Tempting And Very Nourishing

BY MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Service Staff Writer

Use enriched bread and enriched flour in all your children's menus to put vitamins and iron into their diet at no extra cost. Use whole grain products too, at least twice a day.

Applesauce Muffins
(2-1/2 doz.)

One-half cup shortening, 1-1/2 cup sugar, 3-4 cup light corn syrup, 2 eggs, 3-4 cup applesauce, 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped nuts.

Cream shortening and sugar together. Add corn syrup and beat well. Add beaten eggs. Add applesauce. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and add to creamed mixture, stirring only enough to moisten flour. Add nuts. Bake in greased muffin pans in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Cornmeal Mush
(Serves 4 to 6)

Three cups water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup whole ground cornmeal.

Bring water to boil, add salt when water is boiling briskly, slowly add whole ground cornmeal. Cook about 10 minutes. Pour into a loaf pan which has been rinsed with cold water. Let stand overnight. Slice 1-2 inch thick, fry in good hot fat until brown on both sides. Bacon drippings are excellent for frying cornmeal mush.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Baked apples, cornmeal mush, corn syrup, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Vegetable salad, applesauce muffins, cheddar

WHEN BABY HAS ACID INDIGESTION

If your child suffers with acid indigestion or colic due to gas or sour stomach TEETHINA will give grateful relief because TEETHINA is a laxative and carminative with anti-acid properties, especially prepared for little children. TEETHINA contains no narcotics and is highly recommended by thousands of mothers. Ask any druggist for TEETHINA. It costs only 30¢ for 12 pleasant-tasting powders. Write TEETHINA, Columbus, Georgia, for a free baby booklet on the proper care and feeding of babies. Give TEETHINA according to the directions in each package.

It isn't TABOO any more for girls to know these truths

Girls today can be grateful that some subjects are discussed more frankly than they used to be.

That's one reason why thousands of women have come to know about CARDUI's 2-way help. Some take it, as directed, three days before "their time" to help relieve periodic pain due only to functional causes. Others take it as a tonic to stimulate the appetite and aid digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices, thus helping build up strength and energy for those demanding days to come.

A 62 year record says CARDUI may help. Try it, won't you?
