Banquet Celebrating 150th Year of Zion Church

Washington, D. C. Dec. 28.—The program for opening banquet of the A. M. E. Zion Church Sesqui-Centennial celebration scheduled for Logan Temple, Knoxville, Tenn., January 10th was announced today by Business Manager A. Huntington Hatwood at Sesqui-Centennial headquarters here.

Bishop William Jacob Walls of Chicago, chairman of the Sesqui-Centennial celebration in an interview stressed the social service objectives of the celebration. He said, "Our purpose in launching this celebration to be culminated in the city of the denomination's birth in 1796, New York City in August of 1946 is give impetus to the whole program of the celebration."

The funds to be raised, two million of dollars, will include a generous allocation for a program serving the returning service personnel of the war. We shall also inaugurate a program of readjustment of the whole life of the people to peacetime pursuits as they appear in the post-war world.

The church has an important and indispensable place in serving the returned service men and women. Making religion useful for this generation will be the motto of our Post-war Service Committee.
