Eagles Trounce Fayetteville 73-34 For 13th Victory

DURHAM — North Carolina College's Eagle Cagers scored their thirteenth win of the season here last Monday night when they trounced Fayetteville State Teachers' College, 73-34.

Calvin Coolidge Boone of Hoggboro, sparked the losers' attack with 18 markers, the highest score of the night.

Gaile Coach John B. McLendon, Jr., announced early in the week that Delaware State College, originally scheduled for a double-header with Fayetteville, could not participate because of schedule difficulties.

Highest Eagle scorer was Harry Goatner of Ferrell, Pa., who accounted for 18 points. Stanley "Do-Do" Burt, Meathner's roommate and a high scoring forward, and Frank Galbreath, a reserve forward, were not in uniform for the contest.

Aubrey "Stinkey" Stanley, 17 year old veteran Eagle forward, and Elma McDougal, a Chicago freshman guard, placed second in scoring honors with points.

The Broncos got consolation out of the fact that they held Henry "Big Dog" Thomas down to 5 points, his lowest total all season.
