sermon Sunday morning spoke on the subject of "What Shall I do with Jesus which is the Christ", his text was taken from the 27th chapter of St. Matthew's and the 22nd verse. "Pilate saith unto them, what shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, let him be crucified."
The age old question that Pilate asked the multitude is still being asked today that is to say, that each person has to decide for himself just what they are going to do with Christ. Our acceptance before God depends upon what we do with Christ.
The only salvation that man knows about is through Jesus the Saviour of the World. God won't save you unless you believe in Christ as your personal Savior. Jesus stands patiently at the door and knocks and waits for you to open up your heart and let him come in. It matters not how bad you might have been or what your sins were. Jesus' blood will make them as white as snow.

Are you going to accept Him or reject Him? Now is the time to make the right decision so when we will have come to the end of our journey we can hear the Saviour tell us well done thou good and faithful servant, enter now the joys of thou master concluded the message of the Rev. Johnson. Jesse Cleveland Saunders, reporter
