YWCA HAPPENINGS

RALEIGH — The Women Activity Committee of the Sojourner Truth YWCA met for organization on Sunday, April 29th at the Y to plan activities of interest and enjoyment for the women of Raleigh. The program planned is not for the membership alone but open to all Raleigh women as the Y is a center for activities and fellowship among all groups and for all ages.

Some of the activities planned by the committee were:

A Raleigh Women's Directory

A Scrapbook of YWCA Activities.

Monthly book Reviews.

Organization of a Ministers-wives Auxiliary.

Fall Carnival exhibition canning, flowers and hobbies.

A Play.

A Community Christmas Tree.

The projects will be planned monthly and it is hoped that each month Raleigh women can find an activity of interest at the YWCA.

The committee will initiate the program of activities by honoring a Raleigh War Mother on Mother's Day, Mrs. M. Haywood, the mother of Captain Vernon Haywood, who was recently honored in Raleigh. Mrs. Haywood will be honored guest on Hospital Day.

Mrs. Louise F. Perrin and Mrs. Maxine McCauley are co-chairmen of the Women's Activity Committee.

HEARING WAIVED IN FORGERY CASE

RALEIGH — Color Ross, 48, of Poole Road, waived hearing in City Court recently on a charge in which he is charged with forgery. He was bound over to Superior Court under bond of $500.

The defendant is charged with trying to collect $870 on life insurance on William McKinley Jones, an inmate of Death's Row at Central Prison, with the exception of the murder of his wife several months ago. Ross, accused of forging Jones' name to an application for insurance, made after Jones was placed in prison.

Evidently Ross believed that Jones had died for the policy was sent to a lawyer in Fayetteville asking that the proceeds be collected and forwarded to Ross' wife, Mrs. Annie Ross, who was named as beneficiary.

Shortcakes from the South . . .

Extra-rich, tender, flaky — that's how they make 'em in Dixie

And your folks will say that's how to make Fruit Shortcakes every time for them. They'll sit up and take notice when you serve these delicate, crispy pastry squares with sweetened strawberries, peaches, or a combination of any other seasonal fruits. Or use canned fruits, if you prefer.

No second rollings with this easy recipe — just cut the pastry in squares and bake. . . . You'll say you never tasted shortcakes so good. Try them soon!

Fruit Shortcakes, Southern Style

Mix 1½ cups sifted ALL-PURPOSE FLOUR and ¾ teaspoon SALT. Measure out ⅔ cup SPRY and divide into two equal parts.

Step 1 for Tenderness—cut in first half of Spry until as fine as meal.

Step 2 for Flakiness—cut in remaining Spry until particles are size of large peas.

Add 2½ tablespoons cold WATER, mixing thoroughly into a dough. Roll dough into oblong ⅛ inch thick. Cut in 12 three-inch squares. Bake in very hot oven (450° F.) 12-15 minutes.

At serving time, put sweetened STRAWBERRIES, PEACHES, or other seasonal fresh fruit between squares and on top. Serves 6.
