Wilmington — Second Lt. William S. Holland, white, of 1822 Ann Street was absolved of all blame by a coroner's jury in the death of Milton Whitehead of 1209 North Fourth Street, who was almost instantly killed when he ran in front of Lt. Holland's car early Monday night. The tragedy occurred very near the boy's home. The driver picked up the child and rushed him to the James Walker Memorial Hospital where he died shortly after admittance. Milton was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitehead.

Sponsors' Day at St. Emma Military Academy

ROCK CASTLE, VIRGINIA: Sponsors' Day at the St. Emma Military Academy this year was a memorable event. The ceremony opened with the presentation of the sponsors, all of whom were young ladies from the St. Francis de Sales Academy at Rock Castle. A parade and review of the entire Cadet Corps followed, with rifle exercises and the manual of arms. Music was furnished by the Cadet Band. St. Emma Cadets come from every part of the United States. All follow a regular four-year high school academic course, and, in addition, each Cadet selects a subject in the Vocational or Agricultural schools, where he obtains practical instruction that will fit him for a job upon graduation.

Photographed on the lawn of the St. Edward's Chapel are the Cadet Officers of the St. Emma Military Academy and their sponsors from nearby St. Francis de Sales Academy. From left to right are Capt. Wilbur Clarke, of the Band (New York); Miss Joyce Holland (Alabama); Capt. George Hogan, of Company A (Virginia); Miss Olympia Bartholomew (New York); 1st Capt. Donald Witz (Louisiana); Miss Eleanor Woods (New York); 2nd Capt. Leroy Davis, of Company B (Dist. of Columbia); and Miss Jean Fortune (Pa.).

Chapters represented were Mebane, Parmele, Fayetteville, Hamlet, Fuquay Springs, Garner and Louisburg. Group singing was under the direction of Mrs. Mamie Lightner. The following chapters were represented: Mebane, Mrs. Hunter and Conyard; Parmele, Mrs. Chance; Fayetteville, Mrs. Ferguson; Hamlet, Mrs. Mask and Mrs. James; Fuquay Springs, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Day; Garner, Mrs. Leach and Mrs. Avery; Louisburg, Mrs. Thomas.

FOR HOUSEWIVES

All rationing boards in the Raleigh OPA District of 54 counties now are ready to distribute purse-size copies of their ceiling prices on meats. This is a real boon for the housewife who obtains copies of the lists and use them to check at all times. "This purse-size list is really printed poison" (the black market dealer), Johnson said. "It enables the housewife to check meat prices quickly and easily. By refusing to pay a single cent more than the legal ceiling, the housewife strikes a death blow at the black market—for without customers there couldn't be a black market."

PROBABLE CAUSE FOUND IN ASSAULT CASE

Probable cause was found in the case of Joe Thomas, 24, of 1214 New Bern Avenue, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill, and he was bound over to Superior Court under $100 bond. Thomas is accused of assaulting Officer Joe Winters, who was attempting to arrest him. The man was shot by Winters after the officer had placed him under arrest for being disorderly at the Lewis Hotel last March 2. Thomas denied the charge and said that he had never seen the knife which Winters produced as evidence. Winters testified that Thomas was among a group of boisterous persons at the hotel, and as he was making the arrest, Thomas ran. Winters pursued him to the 300 block of East Lenoir Street and made the arrest. It was then that Thomas made a "vicious stroke" with the knife at Winters, and the officer shot him in the hip.
