COURT NEWS

Roosevelt Carr of 821 Cannon Street was fined $50 and costs, following his conviction of a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicants.

Testimony revealed that Carr was steering the vehicle which was coasting downhill on East Martin Street while the motor was shut off.

The defendant was acquitted of a disorderly conduct charge.

Probable cause was found in the case of Utah Rand of 831 Cannon Street and he was bound over to Superior Court, charged with embezzlement of paint valued at $12.58 from Joseph Fadoll of 404 South Blount Street. Bond was set at $200.

Testimony showed that Fadoll arranged for Rand to obtain paint for a job on his grocery store front, but instead of reporting for the job after he received the paint, Rand sold it to Nick Teindisourin of 130 East Davie Street for $12.58. Fadoll received a bill for paint which he claimed he did not receive.

Bennie Jackson of 1215 Lincoln Drive received a suspended sentence of six months on the roads, on condition that he pay $25 fine and remain on good behavior for two years. He was convicted of tossing an axe at Clarice George of 4 Melkin Street.

Evidence revealed that the man had been drinking.

Following his conviction of charges of forcibly trespassing and assault with a deadly weapon, Josh Hinton of 721 South Dawson Street, received a 90-day sentence, suspended on payment of $25 and costs.

He was accused of trespassing in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hinton of 1501 Lincoln Drive.

Ella Rogers of 516 Smith Street was found guilty of malicious damage to the property of Jerry Sanders of 5574 East Cabarrus Street, and the defendant was sentenced to 90 days, suspended upon payment of $25 and costs plus payment of $5 to the prosecuting witness for repairs.

Miss Rotter was found guilty also of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and was taxed costs.

Henry Ford of 6 Dodd Street and Ernest Adams of 1107 11th Street were sentenced to one year labor each at the County Home after their conviction of a charge of larceny of chickens from the White Gate Farm Poultry and Egg Company.

The two were employed at the plant on the assembly line engaged in dressing chickens and would allow a fowl to drop every now and then among the feathers on the floor. Afterwards the chickens were gathered up with the feathers and put in a barrel destined for the City's incinerator, where before the barrel was emptied, the chickens were removed. When arrested the men were in possession of 36 chickens.

Henry Ford of 6 Dodd Street was found guilty of obtaining $10 under false pretense from Stanley Dickerson of the K and W Motor Co. on E. Davie Street, and was sentenced to 30 days, suspended.
