

Plain Talk

BY JULIUS A. ADAMS

WE ARE LONG ON TALK, SHORT ON ACTION

There appears to be no ceiling on talk. For the last four years, at least, we Negroes have rivaled the filibustering tactics of Senate and Congressional politicians in our continual spouting about this and that on the race question with positive acts in a stone-dead duck.

AGREED SERVICES PROVING GROUNDS

Best job of all is being contributed by our sons and relatives in the armed forces who are sacrificing life and limb to prove we are entitled to economic, political and social freedom.

"HAMLET" AT HAMPTON

Owen Dodson's modern stream-lined production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" with a cast of young Negro actors and sets designed by Charles Sebree, will bring to a close on Saturday (July 28)

The week-long "Arts of the Theatre" festival at Hampton Institute. Shown above, left to right, are Gordon Heath, staff announcer for Station WNCM, who will play the title role, Dorothy Ateca, Rosenwald fellow, who will play Hamlet's mother, and Dodson himself, New York poet and playwright, who is also directing performances of "Outward Bound," a contemporary drama, at the festival.

OFFICE PERSONNEL IS INCREASED

It is true that the most outstanding advance by the race has been in the armed forces where the Negro office personnel has been tripled over that of World War I.

COOKING IMU

It is recorded by historians that the "imu" way of cooking had its origin among the South Sea Islands many years ago.

JUSTICE

I have been wondering what type of justice the American people, Southern people, are practicing now.
