JACKSON-WILCOX WEDDING VOWS SPOKEN

RALEIGH -- Before a setting of palms and an arch of fern and white candelabra set off with white gladioli Miss Bertha Jackson became the bride of Thomas N. Wilcox in a simple but beautiful ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Malone, 408 Oberlin Road, Wednesday evening, August 9.

The ceremony was conducted by the Reverend C. C. Scott, minister in the St. Paul A.M.E. Church of this city. Music was furnished by Mr. Charles Mack Williams and E. Beaman of Swan song.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ethel Hughes of Fayetteville, sister of the bride. The best man was Mr. David King Greene of this city. The bride was given away by Dr. O. O. Hunter, prominent physician of this city.

The couple expects to spend their honeymoon at Log Cabin, Virginia after which Mrs. Wilcox will return to Raleigh to prepare for joint study at the University of North Carolina, North Carolina.

The bride is a native of Fayetteville, S. C. The groom is a native of New York City.

The bride's father, Mr. R. H. Jackson, and mother, Mrs. J. M. Wilcox, were guests at the ceremony.
