

N. C. COLLEGE EAGLES TAKE WINSTON RAMS IN HOME GAME, 32-0

DURHAM — The N. C. College Eagles overpowered a highly regarded Winston-Salem Teachers College eleven Saturday afternoon by a score of 32-0. The game climaxed a very colorful Homecoming celebration at Durham, that included the crowning of Miss Eliza Joffries of Roxboro, as Homecoming Queen. The Eagles uncovered a set of fast shifty backs that tore through the Rams' line for huge yardage. Touchdowns were scored by Britt, Page, Galbreath and Jones. Extra points were scored by Mitchell and Page.

Britt scored the first touchdown of the game, early in the first quarter on a ten yard sprint at the end of a sustained drive, behind a hard charging Eagles line that seemed to do everything right in order.

The final score came when Percy Jones, alert State end picked up a blocked Winston-Salem punt and ran the remaining five yards for the touchdown.

The Eagles made nine first downs to six for the visitors.

The line ups follow:

N. C. Eagles	Rams
L.E. Moore	Davis
L.T. Mitchell	Vinson
L.G. McFadden	Gaither
C. Bridgman	Braushaw
R.G. Atkinson	Brown
R.T. Elliott	Haywood
R.B. Jones	Hargrove
Q.B. Galbreath	Vines
L.H. Lee	Robinson
R.H. Britt	Hackney
F.B. Allen	Wheeler

LITTLE BLUES TAKE DARDEN HIGH, 52-0

The crippled Little Blues annexed their second conference wing by completely outclassing a helpless Darden high school eleven from Wilson 52-0 at Chavis Park here Friday. The contest served as a warm-up for the locals who will meet Hillside Park Friday in Durham under the lights.

The locals scored in each period but the third and seemed most powerful as they ran up great yardage against the visitors. Two sensational quick kicks by the Blues alert back Bear Wilder kept the visitors back on their goal line and each time these miscues went for scores for the Little Blues. Co-Captain Squirrel McGuire reeled off two touchdown streaks of 18 and 30 yards and rolled up 112 yards at nine times carrying the ball. Big Ann Person continued to be a pillar of granite in the Blues forward wall as he repeatedly broke through to spill the opposition for loss yardage.

The visitors carried the ball into the Blues territory only once in the third period aided by a penalty Stokes and Holliday were the best players for Wilson and both aided in driving deep into the Blues defenses.

The local Little Blues who journeyed to score their first markers as Wilson passed to Peterson early in the first period and later in the period passed to Lawson. Wilber missed both extra points. McGuire went 18 yards to start things off in the second period but Wilder missed at conversion. The rest of the scoring in this period was done on Wilson's miscues. Peterson covered the kick off in the end zone. Wilder converted. Lassiter covered a fumble late in the period after Wilson had been backed up on their goal line by Wilder's punt which traveled 78 yards from scrimmage. McGuire reeled off 30 yards to score again in the fourth period and later Wilder intercepted a pass on the 25 and went over Wilder made good both attempts at conversion. The final score came near the close of the final period on a pass from Fouts Lawson to Daddy Green.

The lineups:

Wilson	Little Blues
Hines	E. Peterson
Jones	E. Butler
McNeill	T. Person
Hargrette	G. Walton
George	G. Taylor
Farmer	C. Perry
Holliday	B. Lawson
Stokes	B. Marsh
Norfleet	Q. Wilder
Barnes	B. McGuire

WILL REIGN: Pictured above is beautiful, talented, and attractive Miss Kertrina Grady, graduate of W. S. Ethoridge high school, Windsor, and senior at the Agricultural and Technical College, Greensboro, who has been enthusiastically chosen by her schoolmates to reign during the Homecoming festivities when the Aggies clash with West Va State College of Institute, W. Va., Saturday, October 27, in Greensboro Memorial Stadium.

Miss Grady, the daughter of Mrs. C. G. Grady, and the late Moses L. Grady, of Windsor, is a home economics major. She has expressed the desire to become an interior decorator. Her hobbies are tennis, creative dancing, and an occasional movie.

SHAW MAKES CHANGES IN TACTICS FOR HOWARD

Changes in both lineup and offensive tactics were deemed for the Shaw "Bears" by Coach Jimmy Lytle as the local aggregation prepared to meet the Howard University eleven Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Chavis Park field. The "Bears," while retaining their T-attack, will lay more emphasis on power by alternating in single wing formation. The Shaw mentors, making a further bid for power, put freshmen through stiff drills during the week to ready them for expected hard charging of the Howard forward wall.

In the shifts in lineup, Everett Lattimore, speedy freshman back, took over one of the end positions. Rated a promising pass receiver, Lattimore exchanged positions with Arthur Taylor who moved from end to half back spot. The backfield got additional weight with the shift of John Barnes, 195 pound tackle, to the fullback post.

The spirit in the Shaw camp reflected a belief that this is their "inning." It will be a determined squad that takes the field Saturday against Howard. The locals, not daunted by the Blson's defeat of Va. Union last week nor by their own two unsuccessful starts this season, will seek to get on victory road with this week's contest.

received from the brain trust of Sugar Ray Robinson regarding a $15,000 offer supposedly sent by boxing promoter Lee Leavitt, the "Mike Jacobs of the Pacific", for Sugar to meet his contemporary of the territory, Puerto Rican Knacker Fernandez, welterweight title holder.

Ample time has elapsed since the probable offer was made. With the welterweight championship bout history between tiltist Fernandez and Henry Clewah, Filipino-Negro, the one big thing that probably sparked Promoter Leavitt to make the offer, time is perfect for a showdown.

Chalky Wright Turns Back Ruffin

NEW YORK (AP)—Spotting his highly-rated white opponent around 10 pounds, Chalky Wright upset the dope when he defeated Ruffin in 10 heats two weeks ago. No modern boxer combines the dash and unpredictability to the degree that does this Mexico-born colored warrior. A throwback to the breed of rough little men who back in father's day whipped larger men with no ballyhoo or fanfare attached to it.

It's interesting to note that back in '32 Ruffin, one of the real bad boys of the lightweight and welterweight division, defeated the Chalky causing white newsmen to ask Wright to retire from the ring for good.

Chalky Wright was a great fighter when the headlines were calling three-time World's Champion Henry Armstrong the best fighter since the immortal Joe Gans of Baltimore. In defeating Ruffin, a man who gave clever Willie Joyce a very busy evening some months back, Wright becomes a factor in the lightweight picture again. A poker-faced ringman who owns a wide assortment of ring tricks, he was once chauffeur to boxing Mae West of movie fame who presented him with a free and clear title to a home after he quit her employ to enter the prize ring.
