CHAVIS HEIGHTS

By Mrs. May L. Broadie

An outdoor Halloween Festival will be held at the Chavis Heights Park on Oct. 28th from 7:00 until 10:30.

The Festival, sponsored by the Chavis Heights Tenants League, is planned primarily for the youth of the neighborhood. Cash prizes will be awarded to contestants for the most effective costume, and for excellence in street dancing. Also, a drawing will be an exhibition of the Samba and La Conga by a group headed by Miss Daisy Vandergent.

The Festival will be held on the Dore Terrace parking area and the space will be closed to traffic. If rain prevents the use of outdoor for the festival will be held in the Chavis Heights Community Center.

The Tenants League will use the proceeds from the sale of refreshments to further its program of activities for the welfare and general well-being of the community.
