Although the Trojans stayed deep in the Eagles' territory, they failed to score in the first period.

A marvelous kick back by Jones rolled to the Carolina one yard line and the Eagles seemed to be battling in a hole from that point on.

During the opening quarter, the Trojans started march from the Eagles' 45. Five plays after the one yard line had started, Jones crashed over center from the one yard line. His attempted placement was good and the Trojans took the lead 7-0.

PUNTS AND PASSES

BY PETE WILDER

IT WAS MY GOAL pleasure to see four great football teams play two marvelous games in this time are out. My most impressive player out of the play in the first quarter. He cut the running player about four feet up from the ground. Local fans are still talking about the speedy precision with which the punt was applied.

BEATING THE GUN

NEW YORK (AP) — I wonder what has happened to Jimmy Blinn, the erudite lid who during the progress of the war was rated the best heavyweight in the land. Actually, I know what has become of him following the Archie Moore fight during the boxing season. Blinn, a ringwise veteran who is just the type to upset a youngster of Hoozman's promise unless the kid puts the snore on the big blonde early in the fight.

As we prepare to tell the highlights of 1945, naturally no story is more important than the signing of Jackie Robinson by a white baseball club owner.

Second to the story of the UCLA football, tennis, track, golf, and baseball phenom, will be the rise of Illinois University's Buddy Young, the kid who equaled Red Grange's feats on the gridiron, and often called the "biggest mortal in colleges who ever played the game."

MIKE JACOBS makes no bones about something he said all along the line. He has come from behind that comic book operator to tell me that Joe Louis is his very own money-bag. Well, why cry in your beer about it, Julian Black and Johnny Roxborough? You were the first honest-to-goodness Negro managers whom the rotten business of prizefighting ever permitted to make any real money out of the game.

Fred Irvin made some, but I still said, "I doubt like you brown babies had your sticky fingers mixed up in follows in the 'know' like I think I am — how had private ideas about this matter. You know you have took Louis from his first tutor, a fellow named Ellis I believe. Louis is no longer a mere sport name, he is as much a symbol as was Ruth, Ty Cobb, Earl Staudt, Don Buden, Eddie Tolson, Jesse Owens, Ernie Myers, Benhoc, Natus, Nat Holman and Johnny Beckman.

Little Blues Win Over Rams For State Championship

BY PETE WILDER

RALEIGH — Washington High Little Blues brought their football season to a close by defeating the Highland High Rams of Gastonia here last Friday by the score of 20 to 0. More than one thousand fans looked on as the local grandstand overflowed with fans and water and earned the right to a state title.

From the opening kick off fans were assured of a high class performance. Sherrell and McQuire punched freely at the school line. After an exchange of punts, McQuire returned to his own 34. Marshie plunged twice over his own right guard for four yards. Sherrell cut in a brilliant run off tackle for a first down at the Gastonia 21 yard line. A smash at the line by McQuire made no gain. A pass from Wilder to McQuire was good at the 7-12 yard line. At the end of the quarter for the Blues a smash into the line by McQuire made no gain. Wilder tumbled back to the 18 yard line. A pass at the line by McQuire made no gain. On attempt to pass for the extra point was no good. Here pendermentum broke out among local fans. Victory seemed in sight.

The Rams surged back into the game with a fury that has been seldom seen here. Sherrell forced his way to the own 21 at the kick off. Stocketon rapped off seven yards to reach the 31 yard line. Only to have it called back for offside by Sherrell. Stocketon tried again but the entire Blues forward wall was in place. Sherrell kicked to the WHS 45 yard line. McQuire brought the crowd to its feet and he squatted and snatched, swivel-hipped and twisted back to the Gastonia 35. Here the local line opened up a track space for Little Blue. Sherrell who slipped and fell after picking up one yard. Here Wilder passed but it was intercepted by Sherrell. McQuire was stopped by Captain Peterson with a vicious tackle for no gain. Stocketon picked up two yards at light tackle. On the following play, Stocketon backed up to his own 21 yard line. Rushed by the Blues forward wall and the lack of distance between the blocking fullback.

Stocketon missed the ball with a pass on the Blues 27. A pass from Wilder to Greene was intercepted for penalty.
