Refugee Plight Described By IRO Official

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (ANP) — Existence for conditions in Czechoslovakia... the plight of displaced persons and refugees in Europe is improving...

In Louisville to visit his uncle during the holidays, Buford gave a vivid picture of how the IRO is taking care of the refugees in the old world...

Young Buford has spent 6 years in overseas relief work. He brings a large staff of workers of 14 different nationalities to Aten B of the IRO...

Large numbers of refugees from Czechoslovakia since the recent coup have increased the work of the IRO...

Unless a similar incident occurs in another country, he added that the IRO expects to clean up the refugee problem by 1950...

The 250,000 refugees still left in Germany want to go to the United States, Canada, Australia, South Africa...

Declaring that this unrest is caused by a desire for a free life, he pointed out: "The same thing that produced the population that is American is now in effect in Europe..."

He also noted that 99 percent of the refugees are considered "safe investment" mainly because they are anti-communist...

Speaking of the Jews, Buford related that most of them want to go to Palestine...

Summing up the character of the refugees and their desire for freedom, he concluded: "It is amazing and touching how many of them know and quote our constitution and bill of rights..."

18-YEAR-OLD HELD IN 13 ROBBERIES

ENFIELD — An eighteen-year-old boy identified as Samuel Miles of Picochus, Va. admitted in Meigs court here this week that he had broken into and robbed 13 stores in and around Enfield during the past several months...

The youth said that in his robberies he had never found it necessary to use force in gaining entrance to a store...

In court, Miles confessed the following robberies: La Fayette Cafe, Robtrock Motors, Overton Motors, Edman Store, Wood's Grocery, New York Cleaners, Davis Supply, Stone, Taylor, Wine Store, Services Grocers, Adcock Service Station, Sherwin's Grocery Store, Saunders' Jewelry and Anderson's Garage...

AUTOMATIC PENCIL SHOOTS WOMAN IN FREAK ACCIDENT

CHICAGO (ANP) — Mrs. Katy Johnson, 30, is convinced that there are many more ways of being shot than by a gun...

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Johnson passed at the corner of a busy intersection here to let an automobile pass...

Reconstructing the odd chain of events, she found that the car had run over the pencil and the pressure of the tire had thrown the point out with the force of a small calibre pistol...
