THE WEEK IN GOLDSBORO

By E. A. THORNTON

A special effort will be made to help in the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The committee in charge of the celebration is now in the process of raising funds for the celebration. We all know that the celebration is a very important one and we should all do our part to make it a success. The committee is now in the process of raising funds for the celebration. We all know that the celebration is a very important one and we should all do our part to make it a success.

The Little Theatre, Inc. held its regular meeting with Mrs. W. B. Stoker, 435 Elm Street, Friday night, January 23, with E. A. Thornton presiding and completed all plans for the annual banquet party which will be held at the N. C. Mutual Insurance Building, 301 South James Street, Friday night, February 11, from 8:30 to 12:30 a. m. between 250 and 300 persons are expected to attend this event.

The play "Double Door" directed by E. D. Middleton, is making great headway in preparation for its appearance at the Dilford High School Auditorium on March 14th. One or two members of the cast will be shown on this page beginning this week.

This week is featuring Miss Elizabeth Moore, who will play the role of Mrs. Annie Dugan and Mrs. Mary Barnes Smith, who will play the role of Mrs. Victoria Van Riel. Mrs. G. S. Carrey, chairman of the purchasing committee, presented the group a set of plastic plates, cups and saucers which the group had ordered to be given to the Little Washington Old Folk Home. As soon as the other things are completed the committee will present them to Mr. Cooke, manager of the home. The Little Theatre, Inc. will meet with Mrs. Mary Barnes Smith at 510 South Leslie Street Friday night, 8:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

CASES IN WHICH MEN ACCEPTED UC FUNDS STILL PENDING
WILMINGTON — Cases against 13 men in Wilmington, charged with violating the internal revenue laws by failing to report business while drawing unemployment benefits, were pending in Judge Whitfield H. Smith's Wilmington Recorder's Court last week.

The warrants against the 13 men, one white and 12 Negroes, were issued by A. Roland Perry, U. C. claim deputy, who investigated the cases for the Employment Service Commission.

These men are part of a larger group of 17 men charged with similar violations, numbers of whom have already been found guilty and fined.
