Better Future For 10-Yr-Old Parent

By MARK HYMAN

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — For the first time in the history of North America, a child has given birth, under normal conditions, to a normal baby. This child is 10-year-old Rosa Lee Moss of New-Castle county, Del., who was brought from Kruse Industrial School for Girls in Marshalltown to Memorial hospital in Wilmington Sunday, two weeks ago, when it became apparent that she was in labor.

The bright-eyed youngster was prepared for her womanly ordeal without any special preparations or care. The usual technique and preparations required in adult attention were the same technique and preparations administered to Rosa. Several hours after she was rolled into the delivery room, Rosa was back in the maternity ward resting as normally as any adult, after having given birth to a seven-pound-five-ounce daughter.

When Rosa is discharged from Memorial hospital, she will be returned to Kruse school. Her baby will be taken elsewhere for amniocentesis.

Kruse school, one of the very few of its kind in the country, offers many blessings to Rosa and her life ahead. Contrary to the idea of a penal institution, which people get when the school is mentioned in connection with courts, Kruse is a $500,000 plant covering 60 acres in Marshalltown, about four miles out side of Wilmington. It was founded 25 years ago by the Federation of Colored Women's clubs and was later turned over to the State of Delaware. At present there are 33 girls, whose ages range from 11 to 18, quartered and schooled on the campus. There is an additional 45 who have been placed in foster homes and are still under the guidance of the school.

COLLEGE HEADS MEET

President R. P. Daniel of Shaw University is shown as he warmly greets President R. W. Puryear and a group of his officials and supporters of Entler College in Tyler, Texas. In the photo with the visitors are—Dr. O. S. Rutlock, chairman of Executive Committee of the General Baptist Convention; Rev. Moses DeLauncy, professor of the Department of Rural Church at Shaw; Dr. G. W. Watkins, instructor in school of Religion, and Otis L. Hairston, editor of the Baptist Informer.

MOTHER OF THREE GETS $200 SURPRISE

Chicago (AP) — Mrs. Leona Mosely, 23-year-old mother of three children, whose husband has been in prison for over a year, received an unexpected gift of $200 from the Dempster MacMurphy American Legion post recently. The gift represents a continuation of the annual Saint Dismas Award started in 1939 by the late MacMurphy, former utilities executive and business manager of the Chicago Daily News.

Before his death, MacMurphy adopted Dismas, the legendary name of the "good thief" who died on Calvary beside Christ as his patron saint and published the forgotten holy man. Members of the post carried on MacMurphy's idea upon his death, making a "no strings" gift annually to someone who was having hard luck. The current winner lives

HIT-RUN DRIVER IS SOUGHT AFTER CRIPPLE'S DEATH

DURHAM, March 27 — A 30-year-old deformed man, Leonard Scott of Route 5, Durham, was found dead on Highway US 204 about five miles east of here early last night. It is the feeling of officers that he was the victim of a hit-run driver.

The deformed man was born without eyes and with abnormally short arms and was bald of hearing. There were no broken bones and apparently the only injuries were severe wounds.

It was reported by State Highway Patrolman J. M. Kennedy that a man who lived near the scene of the accident said that he heard a car pass and a noise like "door slams," but didn't attempt to investigate. A few minutes later, a passing motorist saw the slain man, he had
