FAYETTEVILLE PROGRESS

BY HENRY M. L. JAMES

PROGRESS IN DEMOCRACY

We have imposed upon us taxes direct and indirect and also taxes in many other forms. Many of us feel that our representation is not commensurate to our taxation. Now is the time to get the representation we are entitled to.

You will vote on May 3rd and will register before April 23rd. The Citizens Civic League will furnish you with information and transportation. Write in down town Fayetteville 135 1-2 Person Street, on phone 2888. Campaign Manager, Mrs. J. H. Haddock may be reached by dialing 7296.

President Jerry Hollingsworth has been very successful in moving the date of the election to April 12th. The vote for the City Council was the campaign of P. L. Beatty, 7 Seabrook Road, Phone 7978, in civic action. He has promised his full support in favor of Dr. W. P. DeVane. Secretary Stephen Rodgers wishes to thank all individuals and firms for the contributions received for DeVane's campaign.

VOLE FOR DR. W. P. DEVANE ON MAY 3RD CANDIDATE — Dr. W. P. DeVane of Fayetteville, who last year was elected as a candidate for election to the Fayetteville City Council, Dr. DeVane was selected by the post following the unanimous endorsement of leading citizens and organizations of the city.

PROGRESS IN LAND-SCAPE GARDENING

I know that you have been looking for a landscape architect for your home. It is recommended for the County and the State. Many of the best landscape architects in the State are in Fayetteville. They have had ten years of experience in landscape gardening. They are known as Fayetteville State Teachers College, E. E. Smith High School, South Anne's Church, the Bible Center, and many other places. The man who is responsible for such beauty is B. M. Washington of Overhill, N.C.

PROGRESS IN FINANCE

At our April meeting of the College Heights Credit Union, we had as our guest Dr. R. G. Gibson, representative of the Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, N.C. Auditor George W. Swicegood and Dr. W. P. DeVane.

Charles F. Hudson presided during the Thrift Education Period at which time Mr. Collins of the Employment Bureau gave a partial report on the value of the credit union movement. Mr. Collins will continue his report on May 13.

In spite of the many handicaps our infant organization is succeeding because it is founded upon sound financial basis. On April 15, the N. C. State Auditor, in the person of George W. Swicegood, released a letter to the Superintendent which is as follows:

Dear Mr. Graham:

members of the Credit Committee. PRAYER FOR PROGRESS

After this number, therefore, pray for Our Father Who art in Heaven, followed by Thy name, Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will Be Done, ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever Amen.

Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven, must take some form, therefore praying and voting are essential in maintaining the democratic form.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Beatrice Turner, 45-year-old, died in the late Mrs. Etelle Hager, who learned here last week that she is to receive a bequest of $50,000 from the estate of her employer, Mrs. Hager, died on April 9.

Under the terms of a will filed two days before in Jackson county probate court, Mrs. Turner will receive half of the estate, which is understood to total approximately $100,000 in cash, stocks, bonds, diamonds, and a house. Mrs. Turner had first been employed by Mrs. Hager as chauffeur, then successively as maid, companion, and business representative. She started work in 1918 and worked full time until 1944, after which she worked three days a week.

COALITION BLAMED FOR RIGHTS DEFEAT

NEW YORK (AP) — Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., lawyer son of the late president, told a Liberal party meeting here last week that "the reactionary coalition of Republicans and Dixiecrats killed the civil rights bill and the housing bill and passed the Taft-Hartley act."

Young Roosevelt was announcing his plans to fight the coalition forces if he succeeds in winning the nomination to the Congress seat made vacant by the death of Rep.

YOUR SCRIBE

By FREDRICK L. BURNS

Upon many occasions I have written and spoken about the political practices in Fayetteville. My articles have almost completely omitted the "freebies" of the Negro vote.

I have pointed again and again to the need for school, street, sanitation, and other improvements vital to the health and well-being of our Negroes, but at the same time.

I have repeated again and again that we shall never have Negro education until we go to the point of universal and free for the type of municipal officials who will give attention to us.

I have fought the exploitation of the electorate by those who would give away the franchise for a fish and bait the block ballot for best and last.

Thus and again I have been criticized by my friends and associates for my failure to call the names of those responsible for the nation's ills, selfish and self-serving practices which rob the Negro vote of its effectiveness as surely as would a grandfather clause, a Bossell amendment or a white primary.

This I have not done, for there is no need you know the men who have made promises before election, only to forget them as soon as the ballots were cast, let alone counted.

You know the men of our own race who have consistently and anxiously scurried around during the weeks before election and on

ELKS MARK 24TH EDUCATION WEEK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The educational department of the Elks is celebrating its 24th annual education week from April 12-17. This department reports that during the 24 years of its existence it has put 647 students through college and still has 53 in school.

More than a half-million dollars has been spent in scholarships for these students. The program this year is continuing to address attention to functional literacy among adults in the U. S. of America.

COUNCIL URGES SOCIAL SECURITY FOR DOMESTICS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Council on Human Rights this week urged Congress to expand the social security program to include domestic and farm workers. Elmer W. Henderson, the council's director, set forth the council's position in testimony before the House Ways and Means committee which is considering the administration measure.

He stated there is no just basis for excluding domestics and farm workers whose incomes are among the lowest in our economic ladder and who need the protection offered by the social security system more than any others. Henderson pointed out that an unduly large proportion of Negroes were concentrated in these occupations "because of a long-entrenched but vicious system of employment, educational and apprenticeship discrimination." But while the need for the need for the legislation, the expansion of the program would be good for all groups and for the country as a whole, he stated.

The provisions of the bill to increase benefit payments were endorsed and the stamp plan was recommended as a practical method of administering the enlarged program for such casual employees as domestics and day workers on farms.

In response to a question by Com. Boylston of California, regarding the administrative problems involved, Henderson said a well-planned educational program on the part of the government and the Sol Bloom, Democrat. He has been elected by Tammany leaders for the party nomination in the 20th district on Manhattan's west side.

TWO GIRLS DIE IN WHITEVILLE FIRE

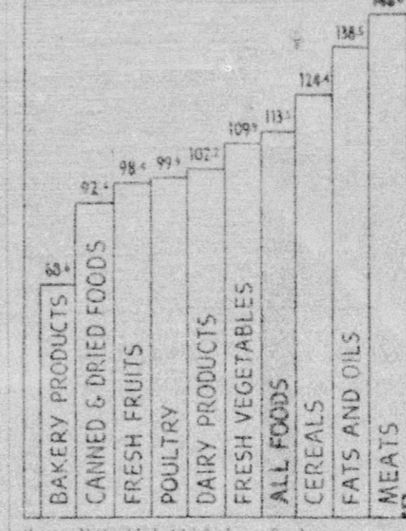

WHITEVILLE, N. C. (AP) — The two teenage daughters of E. E. Smith, a farmer who lives here and one of the richest in the area, were fatally burned last week when an oil-can stove explosion caused their six-room house to burst into flames. The girls were Cecil Mae, 14, and Lillian Smith, 16.

Cecil Mae died three hours after the explosion and Lillian died the next day. Mrs. Mary Agnes Smith, the mother, was burned about the face and hands on the side of her body as she assisted her daughters from the living room where the explosion first occurred and is not reported as serious.

The fire broke out sometime when one of the girls poured kerosene into the stove from a five-gallon can. The building and all its contents were burned.

Bakery Products Best Food Buy

The cost of bakery products to homemakers has increased less since pre-war than any other major category of food, according to a chart which shows food cost increases between 1939-40 and 1947-48.

The price of bakery goods has risen only 58.9 per cent, compared with the average for all foods of 112.5 per cent. Best buy, next to bakery foods, is canned and dried foods, according to the chart, with fresh fruits in third place.

The chart is based on information from the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.
