MAPLE TEMPLE BY JOSEPHINE TERRELL

Regular worship service was held at Maple Temple Congregational Church at the corner of East Martin and Camden Streets. We were happy to have the Rev. J. T. Stanley of Greensboro bring to us the morning message. Music was furnished by the church choir.

The Rev. Mr. Stanley is superintendent of the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational Christian Church, district of the South-east.

We all enjoyed the lecture given by the Rev. Mr. Stanley dealing mostly with marriage and intermarriage of the couple and Christian Church.

We also were glad to hear the encouraging words from Mrs. Stanley, the wife of the Rev. Mr. Stanley, and also the Rev. Mr. Yel.

At our Sunday School we were happy to greet many visitors. The lesson was very interesting. We are in the midst of our spring revival. We are having a glorious time. The public is invited to attend. The Rev. C. McGroon of Greensboro is preaching. Come and hear this wonderful speaker.

Our pastor preached the evening sermon. His text was: Why you should be saved. Romans 3:21. On Thursday night of last week we joined Sister Gay in the celebration of the 31st anniversary of Grace Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church. The choir sang and the Rev. Mr. Becker preached.

We are happy to have the following sick members back at church: Mrs. S. Lemon, member of the Senior Choir, president of the Day Bible Club, and teacher of the Women's Bible class; Mrs. Pulley and Mrs. M. Scott who is a usher.
