Club Tropicana Notes

The Tropicana Club of Greenville, N. C. has been the host to many out of towners. The greatest event at this time was to greet those beautiful coeds returning home from various colleges, and my, how Greenville woke up.

Those persons who visited from far points were: Mr. and Mrs. Julius White of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Vera Dobbs of Harrisburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Jones. Let say congratulations to them as newly wed. Mrs. Jones is a native of Charlotte, N. C. and both of them are attending Johnson C. Smith University. Lock Out, Mr. David Barnhill and Miss Norma Gordon were also guests at the Tropicana. Miss Gordon is a native of Petersburg, Va.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS
The Cosmetologist Club of Greenville, North Carolina gave a swell Cosmo party Tuesday night, June 8th. Quite an appreciative crowd was present. Refreshments were served. Of course it's always helpful to attend their affairs because they feature the very latest in hair styles. They are very proud in styling. They are very proud in announcing that Greenville will be the host to the North Carolina State Beautician Convention this year. "Why boys we can hardly wait."

The Modernette Social Club also entertained Wednesday night at the Tropicana with their party called "Everybody's Birthday". It was well attended by a tremendous crowd. Refreshments were served. The table was named in accordance to the months of the year and were beautifully decorated to its notable events, each table burned a set of candies which gave very classical air. Music played from tropical beat to the bebop tunes. The "Tropicana Club News" will be continued. So let us be your host.

rites mark Flag Day observance

HENDERSON—Business houses in Henderson were asked by Mayor Henry T. Powell to display their American flags in front of their establishments all Tuesday, which was Flag Day. A special program was given at the Henderson High School by the Henderson Elks Lodge. The Elks presented the history of the flag outlining developments of the flag as it is today.

26 seek to enter U. of Okla.

NORMAN, Okla. (ANP)—Twenty-six Negroes have applied for admission to the university of Oklahoma, school officials announced last week.

No action has been taken on them yet, Dr. J. E. Fellows, dean of admissions, said. Everything is awaiting the governor's signature to a bill passed by the state legislature recently. This bill calls for state universities to admit Negroes on a segregated basis in schools and courses they cannot get at the Negro school, Langston University.

A large number of students also have applied to enter Oklahoma A. and M., but school authorities would not say how many. Most of the applicants are teachers in the state public school system, and they would like to attend summer sessions.

This is part of a campaign pushed by the state NAACP headed by Dr. H. W. Williamson of Idabel to get as many Negroes as possible to attend the white schools.

Most of the students have applied for courses in petroleum, engineering, home economics, education, psychology, social work, zoology, and law. One student seeks to enter the school of journalism.

Oklahoma A. and M., located in Stillwater, seems to be the more preferred of the two largest state schools because it is near a Negro community, Norman, where Oklahoma is located is an all-white town. Students may have trouble finding homes here. Among the students applying for entrance at Oklahoma is Mrs. Ada Lois Fisher whose suit began two years ago started the panorama.

PUPILS GIVE JANITOR BIKE

Harry Whitley was presented a new bicycle by the seventh grade of the Third Street School. The presentation was made by Myron Teel, president of the grade and J. H. Nichols, grade secretary. Miss Lela Brown is teacher. The bicycle was given to Mr. Whitley in appreciation for his services as the school janitor. The grade knew that he needed a bicycle so the students made money all during the year in various ways in order to purchase the gift. In his speech of acceptance, Whitley was overcome with emotion and promised that he would continue to do his very best to keep the school the best in the city.

SPIRIT PRAISED
J. H. Rose praised the spirit of the Third Street School and particularly the spirit of the seventh grade in taking time to express appreciation to a person doing a humble job. The groups attention was called to the fact that it is a fine thing for racial relations when children of the white race stop and show their appreciation to a member of the Negro race.

The Tar Heel tobacco crop for 1949 is generally five to 15 days late in most areas.
