SCHOOLMATES SERVE

Hard, Miley Howard, Raymond Perry, William Friesdorf, Edward McKnight, Edward Stevenson and James Williams.

Young Williams, who was native of Greenville, came to Raleigh with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Sr., approximately three years ago. He graduated from Washington Elementary School this June and would have entered high school in the fall. (Story on this page) CAROLINIAN PHOTO BY SHEPHERD

NAACP HEAD

Andrew, Walter Jr. and Jane. The second Mrs. White is married for her fourth time. She has three children, each one reported by a different husband.

She is an editor of Mademoiselle magazine, an attaché of the Hatim International Bureau, and also is active in advertising.

The newlyweds are not together now, as White had to catch up with the world tour by the town Hall of the Air which he missed when it left New York.

What they plan for their future is not known. Neither would make a statement before they left the United States on their rumored romance.

The new Mrs. White is a large white woman with long dark hair. She is about 45 years old, while White is 36.

Whether his marriage across racial lines will affect his status with the NAACP or not seems to be the biggest question about White's future. He is at present on a year's leave of absence as executive secretary of the NAACP.

It had been rumored that he wanted to resign because of his romance with the new Mrs. White.

HOUSING PROJECT

$2,000,000, and his attorney James M. Poyner will be the principal speakers. A forum discussion will follow. York's application to build the project has caused the protest from the neighboring residents. The city Planning Commission deferred action on the application until further study.

In the Monday meeting, George T. O'Neil spoke against the development, asking that York's application to build the project be held up until a master zoning plan of the area could be drawn up by the commission.

O'Neil said that there would be a number of civic projects created by the proposed development. The difficulty of providing adequate school water and sewer facilities and transportation were cited. He also said that the proposed housing would increase the density of family units from three to four per acre to over nine per acre.

This he claimed would not be fair to those who have bought detached homes nearby because the increase of density would decrease the value of the detached homes in Longview Park and Longview Gardens.

Mrs. Mabel LeFevre, Longview Park resident, said, "We do not want racial emotionalism to take part in this issue. The progress of Raleigh is not a racial issue."

will be punished or embarrassed to death if any move is made to take it up here. Four times previously the House had passed similar bills, only to have them killed in the Senate.

Southerners fight. Southern Democrats, led by representatives of the seven poll tax states, were the principal opponents of the bill. On the final vote however, the representation from the poll-tax states was not solid in opposition. Ninety-two Democrats and twenty-four Republicans voted against the bill. One hundred fifty-one Democrats, 421 Republicans, and one American Laborite voted for it.

The Southerners fought the bill chiefly on the grounds of constitutionality. They claimed that the abolition of the poll tax was either a matter for the states, or for an amendment to the Constitution. According to them, such measures encourage the rise of the Ku Klux Plan. Northerners replied that the poll tax discriminated against masses of people and enabled narrow bigoted men to control some southern states.

The poll tax is now levied in the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.

DIVINE ANSWERS

Davis filed suit against the publisher several weeks ago after Davis had allegedly caused several Philadelphia newspapers to refuse to carry Davis' magazine and had authorized several articles which the publisher claimed were libelous.

In his answering action, Davis denied that he had caused the newspapers to refuse to handle the magazine but charged that the article carried by Davis' publication had cast reflections upon his society, had tended to hold him up to ridicule as a charlatan and a cheat and had damaged his reputation through distortion or actual misstatements in such a manner as to convey the impression that he was a habitual criminal.
