

GOLDSBORO

THE WEEK IN GOLDSBORO

By E. A. THORNTON

PERSONALS

Miss Laura W. Wooten and Mrs. Hattie Ellis have returned home after visiting relatives and friends in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Shaw of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Sidney Powell, the sister of Mrs. Shaw, at 704 E. Elm Street.

Mrs. Dorothy Barnes has returned home after spending six weeks of study in summer school at North Carolina College, Durham, N. C.

Miss Sadie E. Granara has returned from Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, much improved. We wish for Mrs. Granara an early recovery.

E. A. Thornton was called to Norfolk, Va., over the week end to attend the funeral of Miss Annie Gilman, the sister of Mrs. Thornton, which was held in Norfolk on Monday, August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Moore have returned to New York after visiting their parents in the city.

BEACH GOERS

A large number of beach seekers in Goldsboro are making trips to Atlantic Beach and Jones Lake over the week ends trying to find comfort from the warm weather during the past few days. A bus for Atlantic Beach, S. C., and Jones Lake left Sunday morning with a load hoping to find some comfort from the heat.

LITERARY COMPLETE

E. A. Thornton, Chairman of the board of directors of the Alice E. Brown Public Library states that the work on the renovation and painting of the building at 305 West Pine Street has been completed. The moving of the library furniture from the Community Center will begin during the week. The library at the Community Center will be closed beginning August 4th and remain closed until the Alice E. Brown Public Library at 305 W. Pine Street is opened some time during the last of the month. The date for the opening will be announced later. More new books and fixtures are yet to come in. Otherwise the library set up is making great progress.

Mrs. Lovenia Watson, Librarian, was returned home after spending two weeks vacation in the state of Tennessee with her daughter Mrs. Watson reports a very fine trip.

Misses Ruby G. Swinson and Ann Ruth Fields have returned home after attending the GHS State Conference at Winston-Salem Teachers College. They report a very fine conference.

Mr. Paul Hargrave has returned to New York after visiting his family and friends.

Mrs. Maggie Clark Benton is vacationing in Philadelphia, Pa. with her niece, Mrs. Phoebe Mae Moses.

DIANA SHOP
Satisfaction Guaranteed at All Times
116 N. Center St.
GOLDSBORO

Service Beauty Shoppe
IT PAYS TO LOOK WELL
Treat Yourself To Our Service
619 Devereaux St. Goldsboro
Miss Wilhe Fason, Prop.

Attendance at the Play Grounds during the past week was 2371 with 933 at Greenleaf School, 337 at School Street and 1041 at the Community Center.

Three hundred and ninety-eight children participated in the springing parties on Thursday and Friday. All children in the Webster section will be given a Lemonade Party on Wednesday, August 3, at 4:30 p. m. in the Community Center. All parents are invited to attend the party.

AMERICAN LEGION OFFICIALS MEET

Essex Area, Commander Robert Powell of Raleigh and District Four Commander George E. Wilson met in the office of Department Adjutant E. A. Thornton in Goldsboro, Thursday, July 28, and discussed plans for a tentative program of a membership drive for all District commanders in the Eastern Area. After working hard on the program for two hours or more and making assignments to some other District Commanders the program was completed and will be released to all post and District commanders very soon. Adjutant Thornton plans to make an early start so as to increase the membership this year to 10,000 members in Division Six Department of North Carolina American Legion. He is urging every post commander to begin working on their 1950 membership quota as soon as possible, to help make Vice Commander J. S. Bowers' year a banner year.

Other officials attending the meeting were Commander R. W. Wenzel, Commander Joseph Corvey, Mrs. Rosetta Faison, president, American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Helen Taylor, secretary, Mrs. C. S. Conroy, treasurer, and Mrs. A. G. Forbes, state deputy of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The meeting proved to be a great success. Commander Powell was so pleased with the success of the meeting that he continued his journey to Wilmington, and Fayetteville to confer with other district officials.

6 GROUPS MEETING IN DETROIT, MICH.

DETROIT (ANP) — There will be six organizations concerned with various phases of business activity meeting here next week.

First there is the National Negro Business League, which will be holding its fifth annual meeting. Together are the National Real Estate Broker's Association, the National Builders' Association, the National Building and Loan Association League, the National Business Education League and the Housewives' League. The latter is a direct auxiliary of the Business League while the other four are loosely affiliated.

President Heron Sudduth of the National Negro Business League welcomes the advent of the other groups. He is proposing a bold new plan which will permit each of the other or affiliated bodies to name a representative to sit on the board of the national league.

"I welcome the brains, the insight, the alert minds and the energy which these groups bring," said Sudduth. "Our aims are similar. We will be happy to have them work closely with us."

The program will have to be adopted by the board of the national body.

CLARK-GRADY CEREMONIES ARE HELD

Miss Berardine Grady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Grady of Mt. Olive, N. C., became the wife of William F. Clark, son of Mrs. William F. Clark of Lumberton, on Monday, July 11, 1949, at the home of Mrs. Mary Wynn of Mount Olive, second daughter of the bride.

Rev. James A. Nimo, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church in Clinton, N. C., officiated at the double ceremony. The vows were taken before an arrangement of white gladioli, lilies and ranunculus.

The presence of music was presented by Miss Georgia A. Brooks, pianist of Lumberton. Prior to the procession she played Massani's "Intermezzo," Bartoloni's "Melody of Love" and "Romance" by St. Louis. Miss Berardine K. Clark of Lumberton sang "Love You Truly" and "Jesus Christ, My Lord and King" and for the procession she sang "The Lord Prayer" by Modette Mendissonnis wedding march was used.

The bride entered in the arms of her father as Longinus' "Bridal Chorus" was played.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white marquisette, fashioned with an off-shoulder yoke bordered with chauntilly lace and a full skirt ending in a court train. Her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a cluster of pearls and orange blossoms across the head. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and gypsophila centered with a white orchid.

The maïson of honor was Mrs. Lawrence Carter, sister of the bride of Youngstown, Ohio. Bridesmaids were Miss Annette Grady of Mt. Olive, Miss Edna A. Brinson Dudley. The brides were lighted by Miss Lavon D. Grady.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of light green marquisette, fashioned with hooped skirts, tight bodices with wide off-shoulders, beaded. They carried colonial bouquets of pastel shades of daisies, giddish, spray roses and tulle of red and ribbon to match their dresses with arrangements of matching flowers in glass jars.

N. B. Buffalo, of Goldsboro was best man. Ushers were E. P. Thompson of Lumberton and Dennis Kirtland of Mt. Olive.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of powder blue crepe with matching gloves and corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom wore a black crepe gown and a corsage of white carnations.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception with the cake cutting. The color scheme was green and white. Many relatives and friends and out of town guests were present.

For travel the bride wore an aqua suit with white accessories and a white orchid at her shoulders. Mr. Clark is a graduate of the University, Raleigh, N. C., and for the past four years has been employed by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service, located

BELL-STUART
Furniture Company
Quality Furniture, Reasonable Prices
227-28 N. John Street
Goldsboro, N. C., Phone 1760-J

ELMORE'S RADIO SERVICE
Sales and Service
Street Floor Sorden Building
Goldsboro, N. C. Phone 2168

Mr. & Mrs. William F. Clark

ed in Lumberton, N. C.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska. At present he is employed by the United States Department of Agriculture, Farmers Home Administration located in Lumberton, N. C. Mr. Clark is also a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Out of town guests attending the wedding ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Reid, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reid of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. G. Matterson, Tarboro, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Eastwright, Wilson, Rev. and Mrs. James A. Nimo, Greenville, Mrs. M. K. Holloway, Miss Victoria Black, and George Busbee, Kingston, Miss Christine Simmons, Trenton, N. C., Miss Thelma McVae, Shelby, N. C., Miss J. J. Bass, Fayetteville, Miss Edna Brinson, Mrs. Perry Schie, and daughter, Mattie, Mrs. W. E. Merritt and Edward Gray of Clinton.

Also Mrs. Owen White, Method, N. C., Mrs. Edward Thompson, and Miss Berardine Clark and Georgia Brooks of Lumberton, Mrs. Connie Williams of New York City, Mrs. L. H. Carter and daughter, Truett, of Youngstown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson, Warsaw, Rev. and Mrs. D. P. Richardson, Wilson, N. C., Prof. and Mrs. H. V. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Zachary, and E. A. Thornton, Goldsboro.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored with receptions at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Monte F. Rivera, and Mrs. Maud Kornegay in Mount Olive, N. C.

CHURCH MEET HEARS HOME ECONOMIST

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (ANP) — Dr. Flemmie P. Kittred of Howard University spoke at the church-wide, national conference held here last week under the auspices of the Methodist church. The topic of the conference was "Woman's Role and Responsibility in the World Order."

GARRIS DRY CLEANERS AND HATTERS

"ONE DAY SERVICE"

208 N. Center Goldsboro

SCOTT'S CAFE

Best in Barbecued Foods
404 Golley Street
Goldsboro, N. C.

For Fun and Recreation Visit

THORNTON'S TEEN-AGE CASINO

And
SHAVING PARLOR
507 Alvin Street
Goldsboro, N. C.
E. A. Thornton, Prop.
Phone 387-M

SINGER SEWING CENTER

Singer Sewing Machines and Vacuum Cleaners Sales and Service Demonstrations Without Obligations
Phone 130 Goldsboro

LEE'S FUNERAL HOME

Home Of
CHRISTIAN AID MUTUAL BURIAL ASSOCIATION
Ambulance Service
Day or Night — Phone 3161
I. W. LEE, Prop.
Fremont, N. C.

FOR THE BEST VALUES

Cash or Credit SOUTHERLAND FURNITURE CO.

207 N. John Street
Phone 1055

Your Credit Is Good At

Isaac's

FURNITURE
115-117 East Walnut St.
GOLDSBORO