Could Be --- Could Be ---

GREENVILLE, Miss. (AP) —

A Greenville citizen last week caused a stir when she wrote to the local daily that she heard screams from the Washington county jail ere because prisoners were being beaten.

Sheriff Hugh W. Fouts "explained" the noises she heard, however, by claiming the woman heard the screams of an "insane Negro woman" in the jail. He alleged that she raked a tin plate on the bars of her cell and shouted. Other prisoners also made a lot of noise, he continued, but the jailer stopped that.

Ohio labor leaders say they will defeat the GOP drive — which Sen. Taft favors — to abolish straight-ticket voting in the state.

notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to the Estate will please make immediate payment.

The bride, the former Miss Harriet Madeine Weaver, is the daughter of Mr. Levi Weaver and the late Mrs. Pearl Weaver of Raleigh. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Chance of Parmelee, N. C.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Sarah Weaver Stewart as matron of honor and Miss Pearl Weaver as maid of honor.

Claude Chance of New York City, brother of the groom, was best man.

Restesses for the wedding included Misses Daisy Vandergruit, Charis Strickland, Barbara Hart, Valena Wyman and Audrey Hall. Charles Debra was officiating.

The host and hostesses were directed by Mrs. Mildred City Taylor, Mrs. Susie Washington of New York City, cousin of the bride, who acted as the buffet reception which followed the wedding ceremony.

On the Friday evening which preceded the wedding Mrs. Sarah Eichelman, aunt of the bride, entertained the wedding party, out-of-town guests, and families of the bride and groom following a rehearsal for the affair. UNABLE TO WORK FOR YEARS; NOW IS BACK ON JOB

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Patterson, 33 Deans Street, Houston, Texas, thank HADACOL every week when Mr. Patterson brings home his pay check.

Mr. Patterson is a member of Houston local 213 International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, but for more than a year was unable to work, despite frequent wonderful offers from contractors.

Then last September, Mr. Patterson heard the blessed news about HADACOL, and the wonderful relief it had brought to countless thousands. Since then he has taken more than 20 bottles of HADACOL and has worked steady.

Every day should be in hand looking his best, in uniform, if he has some one designated by the divisional committee to be on hand to check the findings and progress of the troop.

If you are not familiar with what the troop you are sponsoring is doing, this is the time to have your "eyes opened."

Don't forget the date! — The week beginning September 25. TROOP NO. 127, sponsored by the Dixie Street Presbyterian Church and to Rev. C. Andrews, who has been acting as Scoutmaster for more than a year.

Rev. Keavins and 12 of his boys were out during the past week on overnight campouts. Scout Roland Green was senior patrol leader. Mr. Leonidas Frazier, Chairman of the troop committee, hauled the camping equipment out to the camp site early in the afternoon so that when the scouts arrived it did not take long to set up the tents and prepare the camp site.

The theme of the trip was Nature Study. Their activities included tree, trail, tracking, and compass. The boys found time to catch enough fish for their dinner that night. Wish we could have been with you, boys!
