

Draft Plan to Aid Haitian Orphans

Washington (AP)—Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune is adjusting the support of women throughout the country in an effort to help provide and shelter homeless children and orphaned Haitian orphans.

She has been told and construction started largely through funds raised by American friends of Haitian organizations through Mrs. Bethune's efforts. Two years ago, she said, she was nearly overwhelmed by the number of orphans who were being brought to the United States. She learned that the thousands of homeless orphans who are being brought into the country are in the greatest juvenile problems in the country.
