PELIER — The Yadsent Club, a group of local business and professional women, has put a "feeler" in a place to be converted into a house for the club and to celebrate for private group meetings. Just where the club intends to establish the clubhouse we do not know, however, it is reliably reported that such a project is now under consideration by this group. Very active civic minded women.

a municipal government. Men close to developments there are reluctant to comment too optimistically about the matter but give indications of certain red tape delaying the development. However, it has been publicly mentioned as of last week from official sources that the development will begin immediately. FORE, caddy there is a foursome teeing off on the first fairway.

FLATHUSH FUN — The "Little World Series" was played in World War Memorial Stadium in Greensboro last Friday night with the octavo septa edition of Flatbush's Brooklyn Dodgers there doing batonforming exhibition. "Joe" was really there too. If it had not been for the Slaw-A and T game the following night they would probably be still coming in in fact, I believe they are because half of the visiting bleachers were missing Saturday.

The Boys did a good exhibition with their Cleveland Indian friend Larry Doby in his professional position. Jackie Robinson gave the multitude a show with running on perfect bunts and dancing the bags over though playing with injuries. Rex Cuykendall is all that the men meant when he said catch. He has all the signs of the majors written over his every move. Larry Doby struck out on called strike but fielded flawlessly and demonstrated that Doby speedy slide rounding the bag in his later hits. Don Newcombe did not pitch but played right field and batted as third.

He by far is the most shy and addressless of the Big Four. We could imagine what baseball fans must really get in Flatbush when these boys really play for the big stakes. We doubtless went in for the color and excitement like all the other fans present there and in other Southern FLATHUSH where the Robinson All Stars continue to entertain.

From over in the Gate of Greensboro news was reported last week stating that the proposed golf course for Negroes will go under construction. Really that is, maybe the boys bought their golf clubs and when the Greensboro Business Men's Club along with the team Waldo Frankner spearheads this project, will get some golf and that very soon going to new homes in the neighborhood. Even the plans there to be a clubhouse and of course, a hole course. When completed it will be the only golf course for one in this area supported by

The boys and girls saw "Birds of the World" on Thursday afternoon, October 13, in the school auditorium, which was presented by J. S. Zoology to increase interest in natural history in the school which has been carried on year by year. All birds alive. Their traits and habits explained by the directress. Today morning two films were shown to the entire school body. "Together," a Red Cross film carrying the motto, "We serve our community," and friends, followed through the many Red Cross activities; and "The Earth is People" of Mexico. The first Lyceum program will be Thursday, October 20, in this series.

WM. PENN HIGH IN 20-0 WIN OVER DUNBAR ELEVEN

The William Penn "Tigers" defeated Dunbar High of Lexington 20-0 at Mills Stadium last Thursday night to give the "Tigers" their first win of the season.

Nick Davis on a quarterback sneak, gave the Tigers their first touchdown in the first few minutes of the game. A kick for the extra point was not completed.

David Armstrong scored in the second quarter and with Penn making a safety the score at half-time was 14-0.

The third quarter went without a score. Accurate passing from quarterback Walter Robbins to Lawrence Harrell and the excellent blocking of David Armstrong made the last touchdown. Harrell ran about 50 yards for the score.

Dunbar tried 13 passes, completed only three. Penn tried 11 passes and completed two.
