Smith Planning Gala Hallowe'en

On Halloween or "All Saints Day" E. E. Smith High School will cooperate wholeheartedly with the Lions Club and City Recreation Dept. to make our Halloween celebration this year one of the best yet.

There will be twelve carnivals held at schools throughout the city. The purpose of these carnivals is to provide wholesome recreation on Halloween night for our in and out of school youth and discourage vandalism.

The Parent-Teacher Association of E. E. Smith will bring together many Halloween customs and superstitions gathered through the ages into our celebration here Monday night.

CONCESSIONAIRES

The following PTA groups will sponsor concessions: Red Bone, Newtown, Robinson-McIver St., College Heights, Evans Hill, Wilmington Road, Cape Fear Court, Ramsey St. and Grove St.

The Goblins, witches, black cats, grinning jack-o-lanterns, rustling cornstalks and white-sheeted mysterious figures will be our honored guests.

There will be hosts of enjoyable activities to entertain everyone such as, bingo, fishing ponds, bobbing of apples, darts, social dances, parade, picture-taking booth, freak shows and movies.

There will be many booths serving your favorite snack, such as delicious barbecue, hot dogs, hamburgers, do-nuts, hot coffee, hot roasted peanuts, sodas, candy and candied apples and many other goodies.

Don't disappoint the goblins and their crew. You can't miss this night of fun. Come out in your most comical attire and win a prize. You can be assured that your evening will be enjoyed.

GASTONIA RITES FOR HUGH H. COLLINS

Funeral services for Hugh H. Collins held Oct. 7 from the Friendship Baptist Church, Gastonia, N. C. The rites were conducted by the Rev. C. S. Hall. Sermon subject, "A Friend."

Pall bearers were members of the 4 Aces Club of which the deceased was a member.

The large number of floral offerings and persons attending the final rites attested to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. Collins is survived by his wife, Mrs. Cozette Collins; two children Jo Ann and Hugh, Jr., his mother, one half brother, eight aunts and two uncles.

He was born and reared in Gastonia, N. C. He had lived in Fayetteville since March 1941 when he accepted a position at Fort Bragg.

Those from Fayetteville attending the rites in Gastonia were: M. A. Gaine and daughter, Marion; S-Sgt. Bevins, Cpl. McElroy, Junious McDonald, Mrs. Claudia McAllister, Herbert Smith, Mrs. Susie Boykins, William Wilkerson, and Mrs. Bertie Wilds.

PERSONALS

Claude Stephens, Jr., student of North Carolina State College, Durham spent the weekend with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Stephens, 201 Moore St.

The members of Evans Metropolitan Church were glad to see Mrs. Sallie Bonds. She has been sick for a long time.

Miss Alegra Westbrook and her friend, Miss Wilson of Charlotte, N. C. spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. J. A. Simmons.

Friends of Mrs. Wilkerson and Mrs. Pearl Wright of North St. regret to know they are sick.

Bishop E. B. Watson was guest speaker at Evans Metropolitan AME Zion Church Sunday, October 23 at 11:00 a.m. A large number of visitors and friends attended the service. The sermon was enjoyed by all present. Music was supplied by the Senior Choir.
