BENNETT COEDS SET FOR ANNUAL HOMECOMING

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A large number of students are expected here the weekend of November 25, as Bennett College holds its annual homecoming. According to Mrs. Zonobia B. Hendon, committee chairman and president of the Greensboro alumnae chapter, the three-day event will be a Red-Letter Weekend.

Highlighting Friday's schedule of activities will be a concert by the Morehouse College Glee Club and a formal dinner, from 10 to 11 in Wilbur F. Steele hall.

Sessions get under Saturday morning with a 10:30 business meeting in Rejoice lounge. At that time officers of the coming year will be elected. The annual homecoming dinner will be held at 12:50 p.m. in the college dining hall.

The annual will conduct worship service Sunday morning at 11 in Aunt Merna Pfeiffer chapel. The speaker will be Clinton Armstrong, of the Bennett College in Raleigh. A graduate of the Boston University School of Theology.

Marching band choir members will be those students who served in this capacity while in school.
