

Honors Day Set May 31 On Campus At St. Aug's

RALEIGH — The Annual Presidents Assembly, Honors Day at Saint Augustine's College, will be held Wednesday, May 21 in Taylor Hall, on the College Campus.

Highlighting the program will be the President's recognition of new members of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, and Beta Kappa Chi Science Honor Society.

Following the recognitions Dr. Harold L. Trigg, the President of the College, will award certificates for outstanding achievements and contributions in the divisions and departments of the College. Also honored will be outstanding students of the various classes, a male and female student for outstanding work in the Chapel; a student for outstanding contribution to athletics; an individual and a group award for outstanding contributions to the welfare of the student body; a student for outstanding work in the Library; an outstanding student of each dormitory; and special group awards.

WAKE RESIDENT BURIED MONDAY IN LIBERIA, W. A.

Music for the assembly will be rendered by the College Choral Society, under the direction of Mrs. Romane S. Lambert of the College Music Faculty.

Distinguished Men

RALEIGH — Saint Augustine College was honored with the presence of two distinguished visitors on Friday, May 2. The gentleman who lectured to student groups were Reverend Warren Scott of New York City, and Doctor Edward Trigg of Tuskegee, Alabama.

The Reverend Mr. Scott, Curate of Saint Philip's Church, New York City, talked to the Pre-Theological Students of the College. Dr. Trigg of the School of Veterinary Medicine, Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama addressed the student science group on the Veterinary Medicine Program.

Dr. Trigg, who is a recruiting tour for the program, is a brother of Dr. Harold L. Trigg, President of Saint Augustine's College.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Cora Pair Thomas, Wake County native and returned missionary for the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, who died Sunday in Monrovia, Liberia, where she had served for almost 40 years, were held Monday in Brewerville, Monrovia, and burial was there beside her husband, the Rev. H. W. Thomas, who died in 1942.

She had resided with her sister, Mrs. Blanche Slade, 1601 Pender Street, Raleigh, since her retirement in 1950. She returned to Liberia in November 1951, for a visit to her family and friends.

She was the oldest daughter of the late Rev. H. H. and Anna Pair, and was born in Wake County near Showell. She attended Shaw University and Fisk University, and taught for several years in the public schools of Wake County, and at the Orphanage at Oxford.
