

N.C. MOTHER OF THREE DRAWS LONG TERM

18 TO 25-YEAR TERM IS METED

Woman, 34, Sent To Women's Prison Site

HIGH POINT — A 34-year-old woman, mother of three young children and common-law wife of the man she admitted killing, was sentenced in Guilford County Superior Court here Monday to an 18 to 25-year prison term for the shooting slaying of her half-dead ex-husband.

Mrs. Lula Turner was found guilty on an amended charge of murder in the fatal shooting of Vance Tyson on October 11.

Presiding Judge H. Doyle Sink before passing sentence, questioned Mrs. Turner closely regarding her relationship with her victim. The woman told him she shared a part of Tyson's apartment and did his cooking.

She said that she had not worked for four months and that she

(Continued on page 8)

THE CAROLINIAN

1st In N.C. News! North Carolina's Leading Weekly...

10c PER COPY

VOL. XII RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1952

NUMBER 5

SOUTH DEFYING BUS BIAS EDICT

Week's Wrecks Kill 4

CHILD FOLLOWS POP IN DEATH

FAYETTEVILLE — A five-year-old girl followed her father in death here Monday night as the result of a Sunday automobile wreck on a highway near here.

Little Miss Eunice McRae, 5, died at a local hospital Monday night. The young girl had been brought to the institution suffering serious injuries about the head and shoulder sustained in the Sunday afternoon crash in which her father, Elder McRae, 47, was instantly killed and two other persons, including the mother, suffered serious injuries.

According to investigating officers, McRae was driving the death car, which crashed into a large pine tree just off the Fayetteville-Rauford Highway while traveling at a prohibitive rate of speed.

Injured in the crash which claimed the driver's life were the daughter, Connie Maynor, 23, and Mrs. Malie McRae, the wife. Both Maynor, a native of Rauford, and Mrs. McRae are still confined to the local hospital in which the young girl died. Both suffered critical injuries.

The McRaes lived at Fayetteville, Route 3.

STAFF WRITER INTERVIEWS PEARL, LOUIS

By JAMES A. SHEPARD

CHICAGO, Ill. — We have been bearing the phrase "It's a Small World" for a long, long time but last Tuesday night it would be much more threatening to say Wednesday morning, the real truth of that old saying was revealed to us in a quite realistic manner.

Our Country Cousins the Hults Flyngs, Joseph Hiram and Joseph Hiram, Jr., were scheduled to wind up their Wisconsin-Illinois tour and begin the trek back to Carolina Wednesday, so having seen everybody and everything else, including seven below zero weather in Wisconsin, it was unanimously decided that a visit to Chicago's top night spot, "The Club Delizia" on South State would be the best possible send-off for them. Of course Hiram, Jr., had to stay home.

We have never witnessed a bad show at The Delizia during our infrequent visits to Chicago for the past 15 years and the show this time was really good.

Allen Drew is an Emcee who has what it takes to make a good show a better show, then there were Duke Ellington's "CO-OP," a swell exotic dancing two, the famous "Flamingos," Jo Ann Henderson, who will some day make people forget all about Sally (Continued on page 8)

ACCUSED OF MAU MAU PARTICIPATION — Raoul Muko Gathern, young Lincoln Park University student, a member of the Kikuyu tribe in Africa, is being defended this week on charges that he has knowledge of Maumau secret society violence, which is now spreading throughout Africa. Gathern, who had been ordered by immigration authorities to leave the country by December 5th, is considered by many to have been placed in the role of a scape-goat as the United States join imperialist nations in an attempt to stymie efforts by various African nations for home rule. Funds for Gathern's defense have been raised by many groups, including Lincoln students — faculty organizations.

STUDENTS HEAR TALE OF PERIL FROM AFRICAN

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—A native African woman, whose son and sister-in-law have been among the victims in the struggle of Africans against segregation laws, last week gave students at Bennett College here an insight into what is occurring in the non-violent Union of South Africa.

She is Mrs. Zachariah Keedring Matthews, who spoke at Bennett as one of several colleges on her current itinerary of institutions she plans to visit.

She is the wife of an instructor on African problems at a New York school, and is a graduate of the University of South Africa. She arrived in the United States about the first of September.

Mrs. Matthews' son was arrested in a group of 28 persons who attended a native meeting protesting treatment of Africans by the ruling British and Dutch. He was arrested under the Suppression of Communists Act, passed recently.

The small African woman said her sister-in-law was arrested re-

(Continued on page 8)

DEATH-CAR LEAP LANDS IN CREEK

ENFIELD — Two persons lost their lives and three others sustained injuries when the car in which they were riding left the highway and crashed into a creek near here Sunday night.

After knocking off 50 feet of bridge railing, hurtling a swiftly flowing creek main stream and coming to a halt in about three feet of water on an opposite bank of the stream, the car in which five young people were riding bore the appearance of a waterlogged metal accordion when investigating officers arrived upon the scene here to probe the weekend tragedy.

Killed in the mishap were Silas Bryant, 23, of Wilson, and Miss Idies Lynch, 17, of Enfield. Bryant was reportedly the driver of the car.

(Continued on page 8)

MILLION-DOLLAR Man Saves Tot, 3, From Fire NCC GYMNASIUM IS DEDICATED

DURHAM — Formal dedication ceremonies were held here at North Carolina College Tuesday officially opening the College's new million dollar gymnasium.

Highlighting dedication ceremonies were panel discussions on the general theme, "What are some of the major problems affecting preparation in the three fields (health education, physical education, and recreation education) needing study and research?" Thirty-one authorities in the three fields joined in the discussion.

Dean John Layther of the School of Physical Education and Athletics at Pennsylvania State College summarized the panel findings and spoke briefly during

(Continued on page 8)

ELIE OF THE BALL, ES-COET — Lovely Swayze Harris of Raleigh, leader in the 15th annual Debutantes Ball staged at Raleigh recently, is pictured here with her escort for the gala affair, Wimber Kenny of Durham. Miss Harris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Harris of Shaw University, was the "belles of the ball" in which over fifty North Carolina girls made their formal bows to society. The Debutante Ball and a full weekend of activities is under the auspices of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Supreme Court Listens To School Jimcro Arguments

(Special To Carolinian)

WASHINGTON, DC — Arguments in the case of the outcome of which will determine the completion of segregation in the nation forever in education more were begun before the United States Supreme Court Tuesday. At stake are public school issues in Kansas, South Carolina, Virginia, the District of Columbia and Delaware. As the precedent-making representing various Southern states and including a former candidate for the presidency of the United States presented varying views on the legality of segregation in the nation forever in education.

Allen Drew is an Emcee who has what it takes to make a good show a better show, then there were Duke Ellington's "CO-OP," a swell exotic dancing two, the famous "Flamingos," Jo Ann Henderson, who will some day make people forget all about Sally

(Continued on page 8)

GRAVE-DIGGING 'LOVER' FACES MURDER TRIAL

ABERDEEN — The case of the "grave-digging lover" is docketed for the current term if the Moore County Superior Court which began sessions here Monday.

Accused of burying his still living "sweetheart" following a lover's spat is Melvin Morrison, who police officers report to be a "very cool character." Morrison is said to have buried Mrs. Louise Dowd McLaughlin alive in a shallow grave near here some three weeks ago when his Saturday-morning efforts at a reconciliation with the woman failed.

Mrs. McLaughlin's lifeless body was dug up from a shallow pit in a nearby wooded area a week after she had been missing from her home here. The widow of a World War II casualty, the attractive young woman was reportedly "friendly" with her alleged murderer until shortly before the tragedy.

She went to the Southern Pine post office to buy a money order and attend to other business the day she was first noted missing. Because of their alleged split, Morrison was questioned after the body was found.

His "coolness" when being shown the site of the male-shift grave in which the woman's body was discovered and failure to answer queries satisfactorily resulted in his having to face the charge of murder.

MILLION-DOLLAR Man Saves Tot, 3, From Fire

TARBORO — A summer station located in a building destroyed from the house by two white men, attendant is being held at a six-hour trial Monday. Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie here this week as results of the White Council, a secret organization, held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the fire started. The role he played in saving the child screaming made his way out who was injured was in an life of a small child who without burning the clothes and brought out of the house. The house located near the Atlantic Coast Railroad station, a total loss.

Little Abigail Perez, 3, is being held. Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, Eddie Bryant, 5, and a six-month-old baby, were also injured.

One of the men, a Negro, was severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Thomas and Cotton Guillie were held minutes after the