50c FUSS CAUSES CARD GAME CUTTING

ROXBORO - An argument over 50 cents during a card game resulted in Wallacet Cash, Negro, being severely slashed across the back of the neck. Sheriff C. C. Holman said. The cutting took place over the week end. James Johnson, Negro, has been arrested and charged with the cutting.

A new, hitherto unknown and often fatal parasitic infection of sheep has been discovered in New York. The parasite attacks the brain through the spinal cord. A similar disease is known in Asia. This year's per acre corn average was 31 bushels per acre.
