Rosalie Williams' CAROLINIAN SOCIETY

RALEIGH — "Informally beautiful" is the appropriate description for the reception honoring newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Edward Boykin last Saturday evening at the couple's home at 1107 East Davie Street. In the receiving line with the bridal couple were Mrs. Boykin's aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of Springfield, Ohio; her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schouler of Durham; the groom's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Bell of Raleigh; Mrs. Maxine Adams of Weldon and Richard Harris of Lawrenceville, Va.

The bridegroom was a street length ping-pong racketeet created with a corsage of deeper pink carnations joined at the shoulder.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Myrtle Long Enos, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. House, and Mrs. O. C. Finch, all of Weldon and Maurice Tutt of Lillington.

Candelight and silver beautified the decoration in the dining room. The table was centered with a large white and green floral arrangement flanked by tall candelabra bearing tapering white candles. Punch was served from a huge silver punch bowl at one end of the table. The rest of the table bore huge silver plates laden with an assortment of dainty sandwiches, cookies, nuts, and wedding cake. The capable caterers, Miss Lillian Pope of Nazareth, had ingeniously fashioned the cookies and sandwiches into various shapes: stars, Christmas trees, hearts, snowmen, etc.

Waiting in hostess duties were Mrs. Charles Williams who greeted guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line. Mrs. Ott Cobb and Mrs. P. H. Williams who presided at the punch bowl; Mr. and Mrs. Mann and Mrs. H. Crutchfield, receiving gifts.

Mrs. Dorothy Lane and Mrs. Louise Battle, greeting guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Webb, who said good-bye to guests. Other assistants were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barker, Mrs. Jean Barnes, G. W. Lutkin and John D. Harris.

PINOCCHIO CLUB MEETS

The entire membership of the Twelve Mids Pinocchio Club met with Mrs. Truly last Friday night for their bi-monthly pinocchio session. Four guests were Madames Charles McCrae, Lawrence Lightner, W. T. Strout and Mrs. Williams. Receiving first, second and third prizes for high scores among members were Madames D. H. Harris, Tom Hulin, and R. S. Turner respectively. Mrs. Lightner won first prize, Mrs. Martin won second prize.

An added feature of the party spotlighted Mrs. Nelson Harris. Each member surprised her with a kitchen gift for her lovely new home on New Bern Avenue.

QUEEN OF HEARTS CLUB

Meeting last Friday night also was the Queen of Hearts Pinocchio Club. Hostess was Miss Vivian Irving at her home on South East Street. Many items of discussion centered around the club's Christmas charity project and the completion of plans for an anniversary celebration to be held this month.

Mrs. Irving was fortunate in having the assistance of her mother in preparation of the menu for Mrs. Irving is well versed in the culinary arts. Together they produced a bountiful and most attractive service.

The rounds of canasta and pinocchio ended with the following winning players: Mrs. Elizabeth Fox, high score in canasta; Mrs. Marguerite Lightner, high pinocchio score; Miss Opal Morris, high guest pinocchio score; and Mrs. Sarah Speed, booby prize in pinocchio.

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Jacqueline Flowers, Mrs. Beulah Galloway, and Miss Morris. Members present were Miss Sadie Cooper, Mrs. Madeline Elizabeth Colefield, Ruth Davenport, Elizabeth Fox, Ruth Hinton, Myrtle Johnson, Vernon Lassiter, Margarette Lightner, Alice Peebles, Sarah

SCHOOL BISONS TAKE VICTORY

FUQUAY SPRINGS — Hardwood "Bisons" of Fuquay Springs Consolidated School, batted the ball loop for 41 points as they topped Shawtown High of Lillington 41-37 last night and edition Bailey.

All three games will be played in Fuquay's home court.

Fuquay scored the first two points as John Barnes led off with a single at the beginning of the first quarter. The team seemed about evenly matched and the game was a lesson until the last three minutes. On the free throws of B. Royal and Faye and foul shots by Moore, the theme changed again.

Spring Hill Marine—Marine Private First Class William Frank Rice, Spring Hope, N. C., E. Rice, 12th son of Mr. and Mrs. was promoted to his present rank when he was graduated from Boot Camp at Parris Island, East Coast Marine Corps recruit depot. During the past eight weeks of intensive training and as a result of field experience and classroom lectures, the new Marine has become well versed in such military subjects as precision drill, first aid, hygiene and field tactics. He clinched his recruit training by winning the marksmanship medal on the rifle range when he fired a score of 205 out of a possible 250 during his weapons training. In addition to firing the famed Garand rifle for qualification, he fired other infantry weapons such as the .45 caliber pistol, carbine, and Browning Automatic Rifle. He also witnessed demonstration firing of the machine gun, mortar and flame thrower. Before entering the Marines, he was employed as a short order cook by Howard Johnson Inc. He attended Spaulding High from which he was graduated.
