In keeping with the season

Christmas season.

On Thursday morning, December 18, we will present a Christmas play in which each grade will take part. The students have placed beautifully wrapped gifts under the Christmas tree and will exchange them immediately following the play.

We are happy to welcome a new student in the First Grade.

The pupils in grades 5-6-7 are making Christmas Carol Booklets, writing Christmas poems, and stories, and making cards to be sent to their parents and friends.

They are studying Christmas customs. A party with Christmas songs and games will be held the night of December 23.

GRADE OFFICERS
The first grade of Jeffrey's School is headed by Superintendent with the following officers: President, Barbara Ann Kibbler, Secretary, Sandra Larkins, Treasurer, Frances Moore.

We are studying our unit on North Carolina. We are working on different phases of North Carolina. We have found out about the library very well for an actual information.

We began our Christmas session by selling Christmas cards. All of our work has been centered around the Christmas theme. We have made posters, and cards. Our last and best event will be a play when we will be with a Christmas play and party.

We are to be the guests of the first and second grades. REPORTER: A. N.

CELINE CHAVIS
The girls first grade has been very busy with their school work.
They are learning the 3 R's. They have some nice work, and are enjoying the art they have learned. You feel the spirit of Christmas as soon as you enter the room. They are learning Christmas songs and listening to Christmas stories. They are now looking forward to their Christmas party on Dec. 23.

7TH GRADE ORGANIZED The sixth grade class of Jeffrey's School organized and elected the following members as officers: Pearlene Chavis, President, Herta Hunter, vice president, Rosa Jean Chavis, secretary, Jeannette Evans, assistant secretary, Mrs. McManus, teacher, treasurer.

We have been doing some interesting work on Transporation in the U. S. for the past six weeks.
Our art work, also, has been of much interest to us. We have completed two beautiful Christmas trees of which we are very proud. On Friday we are planning to have a very enjoyable time during our Christmas party. We have been planning this event for a long time. We are hoping for each one of our readers a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. PEARLENE CHAVIS, Reporter.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS
The Seventh Grade is planning to have a Christmas Party Friday December 19 from 2:00 until 3:30.
We suggested that it would be nice to ask the Eighth Grade to come because they would be leaving us next year. So we asked Mr. Vines class if they would like to help us plan for this party. We also appointed our Refreshment Com-

COLLEGE SWEETHEARTS

WED IN FAYETTEVILLE—Miss Evelyn N. Parker of Fayetteville, N. C. and Mr. Ernie E.
Williams of Camden, S. C. and New York City whose romance was begun when they were students at North Carolina College at Durham spoke marriage vows in a quiet ceremony at the home of the bride on Tuesday evening, December 2 as a small group of friends and relatives looked on. The officiating minister was the Reverend E. J.

Gregg, Pastor of the Haymont Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville. The bride is currently a member of the faculty of the Washington High School in Raleigh and the groom, a sergeant in the United States Army, is departing shortly for overseas duty.

They are Annie Jean Burton, Thonnie Holton, William Water, Ruth Jean Bledson and Dallas Gill. We also asked Mrs.
Hurdle to help these committees to plan for this party.

The class officers are: President, Annie Mae Cavanaugh, Vice-president, Earl Hally, Secretary, Doris Snelling, Treasurer, Deloris Dozier. The Seventh Grade Teacher is Mr. W.
Hurdle, News Reporter, A. N. H.

The Fifth Grade pupils have been enjoying themselves drawing and cutting pictures about Christmas. We have a nativity scene, also posters of angels around our room.

FIRST AND SECOND GRADES
The class has sold Christmas cards to help Tuberculosis.
Everyone is doing something to help enjoy their Christmas holidays. RFC

GALA BIRTHDAY EVENT

A gala birthday celebration was held in honor of Little Peretta Simmons on her 9th birthday. which was enjoyed by her many friends at the YWCA December 13. Much merriment was seen and heard as the children played games and danced. The singing of "Happy Birthday Peretta" crowned the party as the children cheered the table to view her beautiful tiered cake adorned with pink lozenges and two Santa Claus, as she blew out her candles. The refreshments were especially scenic and tasty.

For this yuletide season which consisted of Buck Ice Cream with the Christmas tree and singing "Happy Birthday", individual pink cup cakes with green and pink candles. Cups of candies and peanuts with candle in center of an Angel, Altar Boy or Santa and souvenirs of reindeers with suckers tied on each side. The guests were as follows: Donna Hunt, Mercedes Winters, Mathala Deavers, Particia Andrews, Boydine Perry, Gene Nooce, Ida Kearns, Barbara Lichter, Thelma Mitchell, Edna Ruth Walker, Virginia Jones,
