YWCA Activities

During ther Summer months tivities were limited at the "Y" so that it's faithful members and cented it to the. United Funds workers could take their vacations. Vacations were spent very profitable and happy by many of our members and the staff received cards from various parts of the United States, from many of | our people. It certainly was nice to be remembered and we thank all who remembered us

Some of the groups who con ued their activities during the Summer were as follos: The Y-Tcens, B. and I. Club, House Cont mittee, Finance Committee, World Fellowship Graup Each of m groups had a very important

The B. and I. Club planned send representatives to the Conference. They sponsored Hay-ride to Garner for the p pose of raising money. Both B. and I. and the Y-Hostess C. attended monthly dattees at Bragg, North Carolina The Y-Hostess Club also sponsored Hay-ride to Gamer in order taise funds. The Y-Hostess Clut used some of their money to ourchase six porch chairs for the Y.W.C.A.

In Lunchbox Variety

IF YOU CAN'T SERVE YOUR FAMILY A HOT SIRLOIN STEAK at home at noon, you can at least make sure that your lunchboxes contain the same high protein. By concocting delicious salads and sandwiches with sardines from Maine you know you're giving Dad and the children the energy they need for the afternoon. These suggestions have been carefully tested with an eye to complete midday nourishment, easy preparation and low, low cost.

Try these menus this week:

(1) Sardine and celery sandwich, ground up frank and bean sandwich, radishes and pickles, apple or orange, mixed nuts, gingerbread, milk drink; (2) sardine and pickle spread sandwich, bologn sandwich, cole slaw in wax cup, jam turnovers, orange, milk,
