At this time of the season, it is time to think of your car. Our cups run over with the clean, good oil of the merrily that God bestows. We should kneel to worship at his feet, O Lord, we would serve Thee all our days, through grateful deeds, through prayer and praise.

Did you know that an old-fashioned rubber stool makes a fine bathroom stool? It painted and topped with a tufted seat pad in any color? Cover the seat pad in plastic so you won't have to worry about splashes. Then you can keep it clean by just wiping it off with a sudsy cloth.

TERRA-BY BOOTS AND COLD-BAR SUITS set the ice-water test at Mount Washington, N. H. Army Quartermaster test troops were in a two-day test. Water temperatures are 13 degrees Fahrenheit. Such conditions - driving suits are all in a day's work for the test troops.

BIKES BY ARMY QUARTERMASTER TROOPS are longer on winter tests than in desert experiments. At Mount Washington, N. H., they make a ten-mile forced march with 70-pound packs to test uniforms and equipment developed by the Army Quartermaster Board at Fort Lee, Va.

METHOD NEWS

By Miss Dora D. Strold

METHOD - The Junior Church of St. James A.M.E. Church and some junior members of Oak City Baptist Church opened the Morning Service for Rev. R. Thompson at St. James last Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor. The opening and session were very inspirational. Rev. Thompson is the pastor of Oak City Baptist Church and senior at Shaw University. He is a wonderful speaker and is greatly admired by all the people in this community. He wishes the young folks for taking such an active part in the service.

At 2 P.M. last Sunday the Prayer Service at St. James Church, Rev. H. H. Woods presided. A fine service and a very spiritual time was had throughout the Church.

Much praise was given to Mrs. Mary Snider, leader of the Prayer Band for her faithfulness in working up and leading prayer services at the church.

Mrs. Mary H. Hark was minister of exhortations and performed well.

Prizes were given to the two oldest members and the youngest member in the Church, Mrs. Beulah Atwater and Mrs. Lillie Rogers received the first two prizes and Mrs. Albee Hill Harris received the prize for the youngest member.

There will be a Silver Tea given at the home of Alfred Lee of Middleburg for the benefit of the Little Folks Choir of St. James Church, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All acts are invited to come out and encourage the children.

The Parent-Teachers' meeting of the Berry C. K. School was held Thursday night, November 19, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Charles Jones presided.

Miss E. Rogers spent the week end with her grandmother here. She is a freshman at NCC in Durham.

Miss Delores Jackson, John Soren's sister, returned to her home in New York City after spending weeks with relatives here recently.

Dorothy Denton's family, and Willie Rogers ordered to Winston-Salem, N. C. Saturday to witness the Homecoming game there. Miss Dorothy Denton is a junior at Teachers College in Winston-Salem.

Poet's Corner

By William Henry Huff for ANP

We will never have to lead
 Me down the road by lamplight
 Such guide I shall not ever need
 For I am from a different breed
 Or propaganda shows so low

To drive a point a coffin and
 Or strike a solar vortex blow
 But all that is not truth must fall
