NUMBER 41

LUCKY AUTO OWNER
The lucky car last week was the one bearing the tag number "R-2572. If the owner of that car took it to Dunn's Esso Service, corner Cabarrus and Bloodworth Streets in Raleigh he received a free grease job. This will happen every week. Watch for your tag number. If it follows the asterisk, you will get the grease job. The number will be taken from any car bearing a N. C. license.
The numbers this week are: ZY-4222; WW-125; CY-3518; XX-2864; WP-342 & CK-4298.

Either Call Cab Or Walk In Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—As a result of the month-long boycott of its buses, the City Transit Co. suspended operations here Sunday.

It was either call a cab or walk for the city's 26,000 white residents who depend upon public transit facilities. Negroes normally supplied about 70 per cent of the bus company's revenue.

Stetson Coleman, president of the company, announced last week ago bus service would end July 1 unless some solution was found to get the city's 14,000 Negroes back on the buses.

Hopes Fade
The last hope for a compromise ended Friday night when the Negro Inter-Civic Council refused to retreat on its demands for an end to segregated seating on the buses.

Farm Agent Gets 30 Yrs. In Murder

GREENVILLE — After entering a plea of "no contest" to second degree murder, Talmadge Mitchell, former Pitt County assistant farm agent, was sentenced to 25 to 30 years in prison for the pistol slaying on March 8 of Milton R. Zachary of Greensboro, his supervisor.

The trial ended abruptly on Friday in Pitt Superior Court. Zachary, northeastern district farm agent supervisor, was shot to death in the Pitt County farm agent's office here shortly after the county commissioners had accepted a report from him that Mitchell be fired.

According to police, Mitchell, after shooting Zachary, went into an adjoining room and turned the death weapon on himself, inflicting a serious chest wound for which he was hospitalized for several weeks.

Defendant Mitchell became ill and was taken to the jail where a doctor examined him. A few minutes later, he was brought back into the courtroom and a conference of attorneys and Judge Malcolm Paul was held. The plea of nolo contendere (no contest) followed.
Mitchell testified on Thursday that he did not remember any of the events of the shooting.
Dr. N. B. Kyles, assistant superintendent of the State Hospital at Goldsboro, testified for the defense that on the date of the shooting, Mitchell was "suffering from a state of chronic severe anxiety." In reply to a question,

Mechanic's Neck Broken

LUMBERTON — James W. Smith, 28, local auto mechanic, was killed about noon on Thursday when an automobile on which he was working slipped off the jack and pinned him by the throat.

Coroner D. W. Biggs ruled the death accidental, but Deputy Sheriff Charles Morget said that it had not been determined whether Smith died of a broken neck or whether he was choked to death.

According to Morget, Smith's employer had sent him to a salvage lot in West Lumberton to get a brake cable from a wreck-

Garbage Men Claim Work Conditions Are Still Bad

RALEIGH — The CAROLINIAN received an unsigned, typewritten letter Saturday morning in which charges were hurled at the City Sanitary Department by local garbage collectors.

The charges are believed to be "progress reports" following the "strike" last year by 55 of the city's employees, crippling garbage collection in this city for several weeks. The walk-out was halted when the city promised to re-hire all but the leaders of the incident and said that efforts would be made to improve the conditions under which the men had to work.

Specific charges made at the time of the "strike" were that the collectors were forced to work in bad weather without protective clothing and that they did not receive proper compensation when they were off for holidays or other occasions. The matter of vacations was also brought up during the dispute.

Walter McLeod, leader of the 1955 walk-out, called the CAROLINIAN last week and told a reporter that another strike was in the offing. McLeod, who was not re-hired, would not elaborate on this statement, however.

The letter received Saturday follows:
TO THE PUBLIC AND CITY

PRISONER WHO AIDED DEPUTY WINS FREEDOM

FAYETTEVILLE — For rendering aid to a sheriff's deputy injured in a traffic accident last week, a prisoner received his reward of freedom in Cumberland Recorder's Court, Thursday.

James Burton, 31, had a false pretense charge against him dismissed by D. P. Russ, acting county judge. Burton was being returned to the county Wednesday night from Winston-Salem by Deputy Claude A. Dees, when the car driven by Dees went out of control and crashed on Highway 15-A in Hoke County.

Highway patrolmen say that Burton, who was handcuffed, re-

ODDS-ENDS

By ROBERT G. SHEPARD

An element of discontent over the lack of action and the quality of leadership of the NAACP in this state is likely to break out into the open at an early date. Several criticisms have been voiced and several charges have been leveled against the way the state conference has mulled opportunities to secure implementation of the U. S. Supreme Court's desegregation orders. There are some who say that nothing has been done by state leaders but a lot of empty talk and that it is not likely that anything will be done by the present officers.

Some go so far as to say that it suits the aims and purposes of these officials to do nothing be-

Althea Loses In England

WIMBLEDON, England—Althea Gibson, New York tennis player, was defeated by Shirley Fry Tuesday on the center court in the local quarterfinals bringing an end to a 14-tournament tennis victory string which has reached halfway across the world.

A resident of St. Petersburg, Fla., Miss Fry outfought and outplayed Miss Gibson to win 4-6, 6-4 and 6-3. In the final set Miss Gibson's backhand caved in just as had been predicted by experts. As Miss Fry kept punching away, Althea's big service diminished.

Miss Gibson, commenting on her defeat, said, "I knew I was beaten when I found I could not get up to my volleys quick enough."

SAN FRANCISCO (ANP) — Negro leaders at the 47th annual convention of the NAACP have recommended a many-sided offensive against racial segregation and communism.
Broad outlines of the drive were made in speeches before the convention by Thurgood Marshall, the association's special counsel; A. Philip Randolph, a vice president of the AFL-CIO; the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, a leader of the Montgomery (Ala.) bus boycott; and Roy Wilkins, NAACP's execu-utive secretary.

Marshall in the keynote speech at the annual session, called for:
1. Federal legislative and executive action to attain desegregation.
2. Court suits in school and bus cases in eight states — Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.
3. Community education and negotiation elsewhere, including are-
