

Boy Scout Jamboree May Attract Largest Body In Coliseum's History

William Neal Reynolds Coliseum has been the setting for many 12,000-plus basketball crowds at Dixie Classics, ACC tournaments and regular games between Big Four rivals.

But, on the night of Saturday, April 13, starting at 7:30 p.m., the huge arena on the campus of N. C. State College here is likely to see the largest indoor event crowd in North Carolina history jam its every nook and cranny.

The occasion will be the third biennial 12-county Oconeechee Council Boy Scout Circus in which 5,000 Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorer Scouts and their adult leaders are expected to actively participate.

Paul Hoover, general circus chairman for the sponsoring Raleigh Kiwanis Club, says approximately 10,000 seats will be provided for spectators after part of the mammoth floor is cleared for the demonstrations of aims, ideals and skills by the boys. Advance ticket sales indicate every seat will be filled and many others will join the participants, between their acts, in standing room on the edges of the circus arena.

"there are 15,000 registered Scouts in the Oconeechee Council area of Chatham, Cumberland, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Harnett, Lee, Moore, Orange, Vance, Wake, and Warren counties. Most of them have been busy engaged in selling tickets to the Circus and competing for valuable prizes ranging from a deep sea fishing trip to dozens of valuable articles which will be useful in more profitable and enjoyable Scouting activities.

"If each one of them sold only an average of a pair of tickets to their parents" Hoover continued. "The Coliseum will be undoubtedly will be unable to accommodate the rafters and over-tend and we are sure we will find a seat or standing room for all who care to come."

"Actually," said Hoover,
