

Rambling In Chatham

GOLDSTON — PITTSBORO — SILER CITY
By D. W. Headen — P. O. Box 55 — Goldston, North Carolina

GOLDSTON — Hello readers! Have you ever feeling fine. Yes, another week has gone by and here come your jottings from Chatham County and I hope you will enjoy reading them.

I would like to thank my co-writers who are doing such a wonderful job to help make this column possible. Also I wish to pass on the many encouraging remarks coming from so many of our readers who say they enjoy reading the "Rambling In Chatham" especially Miss Christine Payne of Siler City, Miss Guyanna M. Horton of Pittsboro and now Mr. Richard Taylor of Pittsboro whom you will start reading about.

Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Taylor of Horton High School. The CAROLINIAN welcomes young Taylor to our reporters staff.

WHO'S VISITING
Mr. and Mrs. Willie Alexander and son of Oak City were the weekend guests of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Marion Williams, in Goldston.

Mrs. Ramona Taylor was recently visited by the following friends: Mr. James Holloway, Mr. Joe Louis Powell, and Mr. Eddie Barnett, all from Farmington.

STON SATURDAY
PITTSBORO TO PLAY GOLD
The Pittsboro Dodgers soft ball team will meet Goldston's girls in Goldston, Saturday, April 13 for their first game of the season. John T. Helms is manager of the Dodgers.

Players for the Dodgers are: Misses Curtis Cotton, Leah Reavis, Dorothy Reavis, Alice Peoples, Lillie Mae Reavis, Mary L. Farvar, Mrs. May J. Leah, Annie Bell Reavis, and Arline Cotton.

PITTSBORO NOTES
BY GUYANNA HORTON
CHURCH NEWS
A Song Festival was held at Mitchell Chapel Church, April 7. Appearing on program were the All-Girls Chorus of Gull, Gospelettes of St. Matthew, First Baptist Choir, Mitchell Male Chorus, and White Wings of Mitchell, Pittsboro.

HORTON SCHOOL NEWS
The third and fourth grades of Horton School presented the opera, "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs" on April 5.

Characters were: Snow White, Willie Mae Leach; Queen Wisteria, Lucille Rodgers; Frasee Fate, Joseph Lightsey; Court Doctor, Vernon Halley; Nibbles, Charles O. Boulton; Natty, Bonnie Brooks; Queen Thrice Lily, Wynona Perry; Mirror, Mary Taylor; Woodsman, Melvin Rodgers; Aurora, Phillip Cotton; White Wings, Billie Joe Leach; Prince, Robert Davis; First Dwarf, Ernest Dack, Jr.; Second Dwarf, Thurman Seymour; Red Lewis Laster, Wm. Gerald Alston, 5th; Tyeane Clark, 6th; Robert Alston, 7th; Dalton Stone.

HORTON THUNDERBOLTS DEFEAT GOLDSTON
BY RICHARD TAYLOR
PITTSBORO — In the Horton Thunderbolts line-up were the following players: George Farcior, first baseman; Thomas Bland, second baseman; Ollie Thomas, short stop; Bernier Taylor, third base; John DeGraffenreid, pitcher; Harold Richardson, left field; John F. Brown, center field; and Lonnie Rhone in right field.

Horton didn't score in the first inning. Goldston was leading by three points in the second inning. Bernier Taylor hit a single and later he scored. Thomas Bland hit a home run and brought George Farcior in to tie the scores, three and then in the bottom of the second inning.

The Goldston players loaded the bases but John DeGraffenreid got out of this trouble by striking out the man at the bat. Lonnie Rhone hit a single in center field and brought Bernier Taylor and Harold Richardson in to score. In the top of the fifth inning, Ernest Harris went in to pitch replacing John DeGraffenreid. In the top of the sixth inning, John F. Brown hit a triple. Bernier Taylor hit a double allowing John Brown to score.

Harold Richardson hit a triple to bring Bernier Taylor in making the scores seven and six in favor of the Horton Thunderbolts. Harold Richardson put the game on ice when he scored in the top of the sixth — making the scores eight — six. Ernest Harris was the winning pitcher in this game. The Horton Thunderbolts are coached by Mr. E. H. Durr, assistant coach is Mr. E. Elliott. The Horton Thunderbolts will play Goldston at Horton, Thursday, April 11, 1:00 p. m.

Cary News
BY MISS M. N. HOPSON
CARY — The Second Quarterly Conference of the Lincolnville Circuit held its business session Saturday evening in Union Bethel AME Church and Sunday at Lincolnville Church with the Presiding Elder, Dr. G. S. Gant, who delivered a masterful message from St. Mark Sixteenth Chapter, and the forty-eighth verse. All reports were made in full. Dr. Gant gave praise to the fine reports. A beautiful pulpit shawl was presented to the church by Mrs. Della H. Hooker from the Missionary Ladies of the church.

Sunday morning services at the Christian Church was very impressive. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Burrell, chose his text from St. Matthew — the twenty-seventh chapter. Music was rendered by the senior choir. Among the visitors was Mrs. Lucy Jones of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie E. Clemmons, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coad, and little daughter, Linda, and others, with the Macedonia Four attended a musical program in the Methodist church in Marston, where the Macedonia four were participants. Mr. and Mrs. Coad, Mr. and Mrs. Jones and family of Marston.

Those attending the funeral of Mrs. Rhonda Robertson Saturday, were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrington, Mrs. Nevin Wood, Mrs. Emily Arrington Jones, Mrs. Adah Royser, Mrs. Alice Baugh and daughter, Rosabel, this reporter, and others. Mrs. Robertson was formerly of this community.

VISITORS
After spending some time with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Evans on Green Level Road, Rev. Hanson has returned to his home near Bonsal, N. C.

Mrs. Lairy Jones of New York, N. Y. is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jones on Kildara Road.

After spending his furlough at home with his mother, Mrs. Emily Jones, on North Academy St. Airman Archie Jones who has been stationed in Sheppard Air Base in Texas, left for California, awaiting transfer to sail to Korea.

Mrs. Mestor Brown of New York has returned home after visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jones on Kildara Road.

A THOUGHT
"We become Christians when we love; we grow in Christian experience as we continue to love. When we forsake one we forsake faith. The two always go together."

GOLDSBORO NEWS

BY HENRY C. MITCHELL

GOLDSBORO — Charles House, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. House, 613 Slaughter Street, was recently chosen along with Miss Margaret Howard of Montclair, N. J., to represent Hampton Institute at the Herald Tribune Forum, 16 New York, March 30, 31 and April 1st.

Mr. House, who is president of the Sophomore class at Hampton and freshmen advisor, was quartered along with other college students at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel while in New York. He is a 1955 honor graduate of Dillard High School.

A home-making workshop is being held at the S. Leslie Street Community Center each Thursday night from 7 to 9 p. m. All phases of home making are discussed with special emphasis on cooking and clothing. Misses Jacqueline Johnson and Eliza Smith home economic teachers at Dillard High are directors of the school.

Mr. Thomas C. McNeil, 1008 Slaughter Street, gave his wife, Mrs. Jane McNeil a surprise birthday party Saturday night March 30th at the Lincoln Homes Recreation Center.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Swann, Mr. George McManis, Mrs. Ruby Inman, Mrs. Gladys Thornton, Mrs. Marie Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Barnes of Smithfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McNeil and Miss Frances McNeil all of Smithfield.

The Lincoln Homes Kindergarten gave a "Tom Thumb" wedding at the Pentecostal Holy Church on E. Elm St. Friday, March 29th. The program was held in the interest of the building fund. Mrs. Ruthie B. Wovells is teacher of the school.

Easter practice is underway at Antioch Baptist Church. The Easter program is under the supervision of the Sunday School department. Roscoe Williams is superintendent.

Rev. E. L. Rich, pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, delivered the dedicatory address at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in Wilmington last Monday afternoon. He was accompanied by his choir who rendered the music. Rev. Rich is superintendent of the Middle District Baptist Association of which both churches are members.

Miss Peggy Holloway of 926-A High Street, Miss Rose M. Pence, 401 S. Center St., and Miss Mertie M. Koenegay, 394 Hickman Street, left last week for Manhattan, N. Y. where they hope to spend the rest of the Spring.

Mrs. Charity Foye, 604 Persimmon Street, has returned to the city after spending the winter with her children in Washington, D. C., New York City and Brooklyn, N. Y. She spent a month in each city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wooten, and John H. Banks, attended the Fayetteville Unit of North Carolina Teachers Association Dance as guest of Miss Cecil Hickerson. While in Fayetteville they were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Kates. Mrs. Kates is the former Delzora Hatley of Goldsboro.

Woman's Day will be observed at First African Baptist Church on W. Pine Street Sunday, April 14th. Mrs. Rachel L. Boyce of Windsor, N. C., chairman of the Executive Board of Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Department of the State Baptist Convention and former Elementary School supervisor of Bertie County, will be the speaker for the occasion.

The East End School Exotic Dancers appeared recently as guest artist on a fashion show in Kinston.

A missionary study class was held recently at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church on Denmark Street. Mrs. B. E. Underwood, former Librarian at Dillard High School and widow of the late Dr. F. W. Underwood, was instructor. The institute was sponsored by the Baptist Union of the city and the Missionary department of the State Baptist Convention. St. Stephen, Eastern Chapel, Mt. Calvary, First African Baptist and Antioch Baptist Churches make up the Baptist Union of the city.

Dancing classes are held at the Community Center each Saturday morning from 10 to 12. Mrs. G. G. Dorch is instructor.

B. C. Christian and L. J. Thompson of the local Hampton Alumni association attended the State Hampton Alumni Convention at Bricks, N. C. last week.

Sgt. Albert S. Bostic, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bostic, 310 S. Virginia Street, is home on furlough. Sgt. Bostic, who is making the army his career, has just returned from a tour of over sea duty.

Mr. Monrovia Bryant is chairman of the building committee. Rev. W. J. Jackson is pastor of the church.

Youth Day was observed at St. James A. M. E. Zion Church Sunday, March 31st. The youth were in charge of the worship services.

The combined Primary Junior and Senior Junior choirs were heard under the direction of Miss Arabia Bunn. Soloists were Blanche Marshall, Martha Borden and Miss Sarah Coley. Offertory player was by Miss Gloria Tate. Dr. E. B. Lipsey, pastor of the church delivered the message in the absence of a scheduled guest speaker from Charlotte who did not arrive. Mrs. Laveria Payton directed the Junior U. S. G. band.

Earl Lockhart, 303 Dall Street, is a patient at Wayne Memorial Hospital.

Lynwood Charles McKithan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McKithan, 809 Inter Street, celebrated his fifth birthday with a party Sunday, April 3.

Thirty-five of his little friends were present.

No Chapter Tau Gamma Delta Sorority of Goldsboro and the Lambda Chapter of Durham will journey to Augusta, Georgia, Saturday to attend the Regional Convention of the organization.

Mrs. Mary Foster, the wife of a late pastor and one of the oldest members of the church, under the sponsorship of Stewards Board No. 1, displayed the kind of interest that is being shown by presenting a musical program, last Sunday night. This anniversary were all young people. Prof. H. Y. Brown, principal, Dillard High School, was the principal speaker.

Mrs. Foster has been active in the religious life of the city for a number of years. She is the author of two other recent church workers. The Rev. T. A. G. Foster, Dillard, Calif., and Prof. W. A. Foster, who is the chairman of the St. James Trustees Board.

Mr. Forbes is in the midst of his second year and is making a fine record. He attributes his success to the fine cooperation given by not only the members of the church, but the entire community. The membership is happy over the support that is given by the members of the Lipsey family. Mrs. M. L. Lipsey, a member of the faculty of the Apex School, is in charge of the weekly bulletins.

The Official family of the Church is as follows: E. B. Hampton, Secretary; Mrs. V. K. Sutton, Secretary.

Trustees: W. A. Foster, Chairman; William Gavin, Vice-Chairman; Geo. Fennell, Secretary; A. Murty, Scott, E. C. Williams, James Colley, R. C. Christian, John Hollingsworth, E. L. Jenkins, H. B. Lucas, Levi Hamilton.

AUXILIARY PRESIDENTS:
Stewards Board, W. A. Cole, Deaconess Board, Mrs. Luvania Payton, Leaders Board, Mrs. Martha Atkinson, Stewards Board No. 2, Mrs. Mammie Isler, Parent Body, Mrs. B. Fennell, Senior Y's Miss, Sec'y Mrs. V. F. Sutton, Life Members, General, Mrs. Elizabeth Howard, Cassard's Club, Mrs. Bora Carraway, L. Jones, Junior Usher Board, Shirley Atkinson, Willing Workers Board, E. R. Williams, Youth Council, Mrs. Cherie Artis.

Choir No. 1, J. N. Reinhardt, Pres. Dr. O. Jackson, Director, Miss A. E. Burns, Organist, Choir No. 2, Geneva Ferrall, President, Miss L. J. Foster, Organist, Junior Choir, Adeline Crockett, Organist, Martha Isler, Assistant.

MISSIONARY OFFICERS: Bud's Soft Promise Superintendent, Mrs. M. L. Lipsey, Supply Captain, Mrs. E. F. Morgan, Directress of Adults, Miss Velma Foster, Directress of Youth, Miss A. E. Bunn, Directress of Children, Mrs. Luvania Williams, Church School Superintendent, Mrs. Cherie Artis, Ministry of Kindness, Treasurer, Mrs. Luvania Payton, Weekly Church Bulletin, Miss Marian Lipsey.

GOLDSBORO CHURCH TO BRASE DEBT
GOLDSBORO — The pastor, The Rev. E. B. Lipsey, officers and members of St. James A. M. E. Zion Church, one of the landmarks of the city, are now in the midst of an extensive drive to pay all of the outstanding debts, which will end Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Foster, the wife of a late pastor and one of the oldest members of the church, under the sponsorship of Stewards Board No. 1, displayed the kind of interest that is being shown by presenting a musical program, last Sunday night. This anniversary were all young people. Prof. H. Y. Brown, principal, Dillard High School, was the principal speaker.

Rhamkatte

RHAMKATTE — Services were held at St. John A. M. E. Church Sunday, April 7 with the Rev. Gant as guest speaker for the day and night services which opened at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. E. F. Worthy, is still unable to carry on the services.

The Community Prayer services were held at Watts' Congreg. Church last Wednesday night, April 3rd, at 8 o'clock.

There will be an Easter program held at St. John on the 21st of April which is Easter. The program will begin at 8:00 o'clock.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. Haddon Left is the proud parent of a bouncing baby girl born Monday night, April 1st.

"Bureaucrat!"

My Neighbors

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

NEW 1957 GENERAL ELECTRIC

FILTER-FLO

WASHER

ONLY $199⁹⁵

ALL AUTOMATIC WASHER with famous G-E FILTER-FLO washing system

- * Lint settles in the filter, not on your clothes.
- * EASY to clean, EASY to remove and EASY to replace... not a hard-to-clean trap that can jam or clog.
- * Durable metal filter will last for the life of your washer.
- * Serves as a handy detergent dispenser, too.

Model WA 450P

TALTON'S Inc.
Appliances
Smithfield, N. C.

- * Washes, Rinses and Damp Dries clothes... automatically
- * BIG 10 pound capacity
- * Flexible automatic control
- * 5-Year Written Warranty on transmission parts

Welcome To The Ham & Egg Show

The Hams And Eggs Shown At The 10th Annual

HAM & EGG SHOW & SALE

Are Examples Of What The Farmers Of The County Are Doing

These Products Were Grown By Champions. They Were Laid Away Until They Were Really Ready To Be Used.

Mr. Johnston County Citizen Why Not Lay Away Your Dollars With Us Where They Will Be Insured Until You Really Need Them.

FIRST-CITIZENS BANK & TRUST COMPANY

For Fifty-Seven Complete Banking Service Years Service

TRIED TESTED