HERE AT LAST Germ Free Products

THE CRY OF "JUNIOR, take that out of your mouth, you'll get sick," is fast becoming a thing of the past thanks to Corobex treated products. Corobex, a revolutionary chemical formula that kills disease bacteria was introduced by Dr. E. Stewart, president of Bex Industries of New York City (standing), pictured here with Dr. Henri Coutinho, developer of the formula. This long sought-after boon to mankind is already scheduled to appear in clothing, blankets, paint, Payton plastic toys, Little Angel nursery products, plastic containers, Perma-Nurse baby bottles and housewares. This scientific achievement heralds a new era of health protection. In addition to its "permanent germ-killing action," Corobex is self-deodorizing, destroys fungus and prevents mold. It is completely safe, being non-allergic, non-toxic and non-poisonous.
